A LITTLE BIT OF KINDNESS CAN GO A LONG WAY TO HELP END BULLYING

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin

'Kindness is one size fits all' – this year's national Pink Shirt Day campaign slogan encourages citizens to see the power behind the act of kindness; when people treat others with respect and compassion. The City of Leduc is hosting its third annual Pink Shirt Day in efforts to end bullying in this community.

"We've taken it beyond the one day by hosting workshops before and after Feb. 24 to create greater awareness on how to end bullying in our community," says Donna Brock, director of Family and Community Support Services. "Bullying of any kind should never be tolerated and we want people to understand the issue and the impacts felt whether it's at home, school, in the workplace or on the Internet."

Free workshops/activities:

- Session 1 for parents and coaches: Feb. 17, 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. at Christ the King School (3511 Rollyview Road, Leduc). Author and retired NHLer (2005 – 2012) Patrick O'Sullivan will be speaking from his own abusive experiences at the hands of his father to relay the dangers of being a helicopter parent. Note: minors must be accompanied by an adult to attend.
- Session 2 for junior high students: Feb. 18, (two opportunities) 9 – 10 a.m., and 10:30 – 11:30 a.m., at the MacLab Centre for the Performing Arts (4308 50th Str., Leduc). O'Sullivan will be talking to the students about his life, experiences, and the effects of bullying.

- Session 3 for parents and social services professionals: Feb. 22, 6:30 – 7:30 p.m., Canadian Western Bank Room at the Leduc Recreation Centre (4330 Black Gold Drive, Leduc). Karen Kondor, public speaker on bullying prevention education, will provide a high-level overview on the issue of bullying.

- Session 4 for teachers (by invitation only): March 4 two opportunities that morning.

On Feb. 24, city staff and a member of city council will be out visiting participating businesses for a photo opportunity.

For more information, visit Leduc.ca or call 780-980-7177. This event is made possible in partnership with Scotiabank in Leduc.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A man and his wife were having some problems at home and were giving each other the silent treatment. The next week the man realized that he would need his wife to wake him at 5:00 am for an early morning business flight to Chicago. Not wanting to be the first to break the silence, he finally wrote on a piece of paper, "Please wake me at 5:00 am."

The next morning the man woke up, only to discover it was 9:00am, and that he had missed his flight. Furious, he was about to go and see why his wife hadn't woken him when he noticed a piece of paper by the bed ... it said... "It is 5:00am; wake up."

SHOW US YOUR HEART FEBRUARY 12 – 28, 2016

Submitted by Cassandra Ward

January 12, 2016: Brampton, ON - A little goes a long way to helping thousands of homeless animals and the shelters and pet rescue groups that support them. From February 12- 28, join Global Pet Foods and Michael "Pinball" Clemons to support Global Pet Foods' annual Show Us Your Heart™ fundraiser.

Donate as little as $1 in-store during Show Us Your Heart™ and Global Pet Foods will match it with another $1. Purchase a Paper Heart for $5 and Global Pet Foods will donate $1, plus give you 10 AIR MILES® Bonus Miles! 100% of all funds raised will be donated to local animal shelters and pet rescue groups to provide much needed shelter, care and treatment for pets in need.

Pets like Hunter, a 10 year old Rottweiler Shepherd mix surrendered to Animal Rescue Transfer System (ARTS) in Alberta. When Hunter came to ARTS he was at least 50 lbs overweight, which significantly limited his mobility. With the help of aqua therapy, Hunter lost 40 lbs, regained his mobility, strengthened his muscles and is now looking for a forever home.

Community-based pet groups often struggle to raise the funds necessary to keep the lights on and pay vet bills. Even the smallest donation made during Show Us Your Heart™ can make a big difference to pets in need and the people who are caring for them.

To help homeless pets like Hunter, visit any Global Pet Foods store from February 12-28, 2016 to donate. Since its inception, the Show Us Your Heart™ fundraiser has raised over $1,000,000 to help care for thousands of homeless animals across Canada.

BEWARE OF SCAMMERS IMPERSONATING THE CANADA REVENUE AGENCY

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

Ottawa, Ontario -The RCMP and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) are warning Canadians about an ongoing scam in which taxpayers across the country receive phone calls or emails from individuals impersonating CRA employees. These people are scammers.

The scammers tell taxpayers that they either owe money to the CRA or have a tax refund. Taxpayers are threatened with arrest or jail time if they do not take immediate action and provide money or personal or financial information.

"The CRA takes these matters very seriously and provides substantial information to Canadians about how to protect themselves from scams undertaken using the CRA's name. Informing yourself is particularly important during the tax filing season, when such scams peak," said the Honourable Diane LeBouthillier, Minister of National Revenue. This information, including examples of real scam telephone calls and e-mails, can be easily found on the CRA web site.

"Scammers are always looking for new ways to get your money or your personal information," warns Assistant Commissioner Todd Shean, who leads the RCMP's Federal Policing Special Services. "The RCMP works every day to track down fraudsters and bring them to justice, but raising awareness about fraud is also important as it is one of the most effective ways of protecting Canadians from scammers. The more you know about a specific fraud, the less likely you'll be a victim of that fraud."

The RCMP plays a crucial role in educating the public about scams, and has a number of programs in place to track fraud, including one run by the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre (CAFC). The CAFC monitors all types of scams, and warns Canadians to be on the lookout for scammers during the upcoming tax season. The RCMP also works closely with the CRA to raise awareness about tax-related scams.

When CRA employees call taxpayers, they follow established procedures to ensure personal information is protected. To confirm the authenticity of a call, contact the CRA by using its official telephone number for individual tax enquiries: 1-800-959-8281. You can also verify your individual tax account through a secure CRA portal: My Account.

If you believe you may be the victim of fraud or have given personal or financial information in error, contact your local police service and your financial institution.

Province-Wide Cheque Fraud

If you have any further questions on how to protect your business or yourself from this and other types of fraud contact your local police agency.

PREVIOUS RELEASE : 2016-02-01

Vegreville, Alberta

In December 2015 the Vegreville RCMP received at least 3 complaints of bad cheques being uttered in Vegreville, Alberta.

Investigation revealed that the suspects in all 3 events are identified as Virginia Josephine WALLIS (38 years old) and Daryl George WALLIS (40 years old). The pair would enter retail stores and purchase $200-$700 worth of merchandise and then write Cheques from accounts with insufficient funds.

Further investigation shows that the pair are suspected of the same offences in 23 separate and similar occurrences all across central Alberta since October 2015. Occurrences have been reported in towns from Olds to St Paul, AB and numerous stops in between.

In the most recent occurrence in Two Hills, Alberta the pair were seen departing in a white 2002 Dodge Ram truck displaying Alberta license plate BSN-0943.

RCMP would like businesses in Alberta to be aware of these suspects, their behaviours and to protect themselves from being taken advantage of by these individuals.

Charges have been laid and they are wanted on arrest warrants for these offences. If you know the whereabouts of these suspects please call Crimestoppers at 1-800-222-8477 or your local police agency. They are not believed to be violent. However RCMP advise the public not to approach the pair, and to dial 911 if spotted.

WEDDING RINGS ARE SYMBOLIC GESTURES OF COMMITMENT

Couples adhere to many traditions on their wedding days, including the exchange of wedding rings. Wedding rings symbolize the union of two people and their pledge to remain faithful to each other.

No one is exactly sure just when the tradition of exchanging wedding rings originated, but some say it can be traced back to ancient Egypt, when the oldest recorded exchange of wedding rings was made. Reeds growing along the Nile were twisted and braided into rings and given during betrothal ceremonies. The round ring symbolized eternity, and the hole within the center meant a gateway to things unknown. Since reeds were not very durable, soon ivory, leather and bone were used to create wedding rings.

As new lands were explored and territories expanded, traditions from one culture were adopted and modified by other cultures. The same is true with wedding rings. According to the Diamond Source, wedding rings were adopted by Romans and incorporated into Western wedding ceremonies. Romans' rings were highly decorated, and some historians believe wedding rings were given to represent ownership over brides instead of symbolizing love. These rings were made of iron and called "Anulus Pronubus," or "betrothal ring."

Rings have been simplified since those days and ultimately made of many materials. Throughout history, wedding rings were worn on various fingers and even both hands, whereas many married people in Western cultures now wear their wedding rings on the left hand and on the fourth finger. Romans once believed that this finger contained a vein, called the "Vena Amoris," that ran directly to the heart. Though that is not true, the tradition has prevailed.

Other legends say that, when blessing a Christian marriage, priests would bind the marriage by saying, "In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit," simultaneously touching the ring to the recipient's thumb, index finger and middle finger, before slipping it on the fourth finger while saying, "Amen."

Another theory on ring placement is that wedding rings are worn on the ring finger because that finger isn't used as much as the rest of the hand, ensuring delicate ring materials won't be damaged.

Ross Simmons Jewelry states that gold is still the most popular metal choice for wedding rings, but couples are opting for some other metals that are more durable. Platinum is popular not only because it is long-wearing, but it also tends to be the most expensive. It's also a dense metal and can feel heavy in hand. Tungsten carbide is another durable metal that has grown in popularity in recent years. These rings cannot be cut and resoldered, which means it's important to size the rings correctly the first time. Titanium is both lightweight and durable, and it's popular because it is hypo-allergenic, making it practical for those with allergies to other metals.

Wedding rings continue to serve as symbols of a couple's vows and union. Much like the marriage itself, they are designed to last the test of time.

DANCE LESSONS CAN BE HELPFUL PRIOR TO A WEDDING

Apart from their initial nerves during their wedding ceremonies, many couples feel comfortable having all eyes on them for the majority of their wedding days. However, some couples get a bit of stagefright when dancing as husband and wife for the first time.

First dances and parent-child dances are popular wedding reception rituals. The couple's dance serves as their first act as a married pair, often occurring at the onset of the wedding reception. Father-daughter and mother-son dances may take place at different points in the evening.

Some people relish the idea of having the spotlight on them, while others are nervous about dancing in front of a crowd. While couples need not look like contestants on "Dancing With the Stars" to pull off a successful first dance, taking dance lessons prior to the wedding can teach men and women some key moves and help calm their nerves.

Couples may want to begin dance lessons a few months before their wedding day to get acclimated to the experience. The more lessons couples take, the more comfortable they will likely be when it comes time to cut a rug.

Private dance lessons may be more effective than group lessons, as they enable one-on-one interaction with instructors, who point out any missteps immediately and correct form on the spot. Instructors also may suggest which routines couples should embrace and which they may want to avoid.

Preparation can stem nervousness and help couples feel more confident on the dance floor, even if their dances last only a few minutes. The goal of dance lessons is for couples to become better dancers, but improved skills on the dance floor is not the only thing couples can take from dance lessons.

· Exercise: Dancing is an excellent form of exercise that can help couples build up their endurance. In addition, the cardiovascular benefits of dancing can help couples shed a few pounds prior to their wedding days.

· Stress relief: Planning a wedding is not always easy. Having a night of the week devoted to some fun couple time can help relieve some of the stress couples may feel when planning a wedding.

· Enjoyable memories: Taking dance lessons as a couple is something couples may look back on fondly long after they have tied the knot and cut their first rug as husband and wife.

Dance lessons can help couples calm their nerves as their first dance approaches.

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
