CITY OF LEDUC LAUNCHES NEW PROPERTY TAX CALCULATOR ONLINE

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin, Corporate Communications | City of Leduc

The Leduc Tax Calculator is a new web resource for all current and potential residential and non-residential property owners to learn more about property taxes and how those taxes are invested in the community.

"This new online tool is an informative method to help citizens understand where and how tax dollars are allocated," says Gino Damo, manager of Revenue Services with the City of Leduc.

The calculator provides two outputs for online users:

- Annual property tax breakdown which reflects the tax notice.

• Municipal operations breakdown outlines where the municipal portion of the annual property taxes is invested for city services, based on departments.

The online calculator requires few steps:

GET TO KNOW THE DANGERS OF FENTANYL

Submitted by Lauren Wozny, Department Communications | City of Leduc

In response to the rise of fentanyl use in communities across Canada, the City of Leduc and Leduc Community Drug Action Committee will be hosting a Fentanyl Information Session on May 11, 2017.

The evening will include presentations from local fentanyl experts to spur informative conversation about the drug and its increasing presence. "Our goal is to bring awareness to the community regarding the dangers of fentanyl," says Paul Drader, Chair of the Leduc Community Drug Action Committee.

Corporal Brad McIntosh, RCMP "K" Division Clan Lab Enforcement and Response (CLEAR) Team joins Dr. Martin Davies, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, University of Alberta, at the event to speak on the deadly drug, its dangerous affects, and what is being done to protect Canadians.

Both speakers plan to cover a number of topics including how and why the drug is produced, its arrival in Canada, and what makes it more dangerous than traditional opioids.

CITY OF LEDUC SELECTED TO HOST 2018 CURLING CANADA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Submitted by Sherrie Mohr, Corporate Communications | City of Leduc

Curling Canada recently announced that the City of Leduc will be hosting four national curling championships next spring, from March 24 – April 2018. The four curling events will be hosted at the Leduc Recreation Centre's twin arenas (Ken's Furniture Arena and the Robinson Arena) and BMO Centre curling facility.

The curling championships will also be part of the Leduc Curling Club's 100th anniversary celebrations.

"We are very pleased to be the host for this ground-breaking event," said City of Leduc Mayor Greg Kruschke. "The City has a proud history of curling excellence and hosting major events, and it's fitting for this event to occur during the 100th anniversary of the BMO Curling Centre."

2017-2018 is the Leduc Curling Club's centennial season. Activities are planned throughout the season to celebrate this milestone. This 'mega-event' is unique in a number of ways:

- It will be the first time Canadian Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) national men's and women's championships for colleges and institutes will be staged in cooperation with Curling Canada;

- The CCAA national event will be held in tandem with the USPORTS University Championships;

- Wheelchair Curling; and

- The Canadian Mixed Doubles Championship - a new discipline gaining a lot of momentum worldwide!

"We chose The City of Leduc as a site for Curling Canada events following our first site visit while the LRC was under construction," said Danny Lamoureux, Curling Canada, Curling Club Development & Championship Series. "We knew this building would work very well for a number of our events because of the comprehensive facilities, the proximity to the airport, and the many great hotels."

JOKE OF THE WEEK

I was doing yard work after the storm this weekend and my wife was about to take a shower. I realized that I couldn't find the rake. I yelled up to my wife, "Where's the rake?" She couldn't hear me and she shouted back, "What?" I pointed to my eye, then I pointed to my knee and made a raking motion. Then my wife wasn't sure and said, "What?" I repeated the gestures: "EYE KNEE THE RAKE." My wife replied that she understands and signals back. She first points to her eye, next she points to her left breast, then she points to her bum, and finally to her crotch. Well, there is no way in hell I could even come close to that one. Exasperated, I went upstairs and asked her, "What the hell was that?" She replied, "EYE - LEFT TIT - BEHIND - THE BUSH."

RIDING UPDATE – WEEK OF MAY 22, 2017

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Parliament was on recess this week, allowing me to spend time in the riding.

Last Friday, I visited the new Northern Rockies Museum of Culture and Heritage in Hinton. On Saturday, I attended the Big Horn Rodeo breakfast and parade in Caroline. Later that day, I dropped in for a visit with veterans at the Edson Legion.

On Monday, I spent the day in my Edson office meeting with constituents, including an organization to discuss affordable housing in our riding.

On Tuesday, I had a meeting in Drayton Valley before attending an unveiling celebration for the Brazeau County Solar Project.

On Wednesday, I toured the facilities at Camp He Ho Ha at Lake Isle and met with staff. The camp provides safe and rewarding recreational opportunities to children and adults with physical and mental disabilities. I was quite impressed with the facilities.

After spending the first half of the week in the riding, I flew to Ottawa on Thursday to attend the Conservative Party of Canada's Leadership Convention over the weekend. Voting for the next leader of the party has been underway and the winner will be announced on Saturday.

I look forward to welcoming the new leader and returning to Parliament next week with a renewed caucus. My next update will be from Parliament as we return from recess for the next couple of weeks before the summer break.

SAFETY PAYS OFF FOR LOCAL JUNIOR AND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Submitted by Natalie Lang, Communications | City of Leduc

Local students are up to $500 richer, following last week's city council meeting where Mayor Greg Kriskhke handed out awards to the Safety Star video contest winners.

The contest, which wrapped up earlier this year, asked junior and senior high school students to film short videos demonstrating ways they keep safe in their day-to-day lives. A partnership between Leduc

Enforcement Services (LES), Community Safety Advisory Committee (CSAC) and Leduc RCMP, this contest aimed at promoting safe behaviours to local youth. Submissions were judged by members of CSAC and winners were selected based on the criteria of safety messaging, creativity, and quality of video production.

"LES, CSAC and the Leduc RCMP are committed to making our community a safe and healthy place for residents of all ages," says Cameron Chisholm, manager of RCMP

Administration and Leduc Enforcement Services. "Initiatives, such as the Safety Star video contest, are a key part of our strategy to raise awareness about safety throughout the community, and to encourage residents to adopt safe and responsible behaviours."

Winners were selected in two age categories for Grades 10 to 12 and Grades 7 to 9:

• First place winners: Jason Davin and Derek Parker of Leduc Composite High School, as well as Keegan Vansickle and Marcus Gag-

non of Christ the King School

• Second place winners: Bernice Meja and Kassie Neufeld (Leduc Composite High School), and Ashton Hansen (Leduc Junior High School)

• Third place winners: Chase Manion, Jet Henry and Mathew McEwan of Christ the King School, and Jacob Losing, Calvin Baker, Tyberius Chomlak and Ben Bogath of Caledonia Park School

CITY COUNCIL MOVES FORWARD WITH 1.8% RES/NON-RES TAX INCREASE

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin, Corporate Communications | City of Leduc

Leduc's tax revenue increase is set at 1.8%, however not all citizens and businesses will see a raise on their 2017 tax bill. Leduc City Council passed the 2017 Property Tax Bylaw at their regular meeting, April 24, that also outlines this year's property assessment impacts and a three-year tax smoothly strategy.

"Without a doubt times have been tough for every aspect of this community, from local small businesses to our citizens, and this municipality did not go untouched by the economic downturn that began late 2015," says Leduc Mayor Greg Krischke. "In working very closely with administration, we've put together a conservative tax smoothing strategy to help balance the challenges we're facing while maintaining a service level citizens have come to rely on."

The city's multi-year tax smoothing strategy provides the ability of preserving current services and programs by taking a proactive approach in forecasting the potential future tax impact over a three-year period:

- 1.81 per cent in 2017
- 2.82 per cent in 2018
- 3.3 per cent in 2019

The 2017 property assessments have also changed during this tax season that will show roughly a third of citizens, respectively, either paying more, less or basically the same as the previous tax year. This shift in assessment is the result of either growth, or overall supply and demand which also coincides with inflation/deflation.

"This is congruent with a slower housing market," says Jennifer Cannon, director of Finance with the City of Leduc. "Although Leduc grew by 4 per cent in 2016, overall development in this city was less than half ($122.8 million) over the previous year ($255.5 million in 2015). These are significant factors that affect the city's taxation process."

City administration continues to monitor economic activity, and although the province is seeing some positive movement, current forecasts indicate Alberta will not reach the similar activity levels in 2014 until 2019.

Education Property Tax

This tax is calculated by the province based on property assessment values where every municipality in Alberta is required to collect this tax on the province's behalf (100 per cent flow-through). The 2017 education requisition is just over $17.7 million, up from $15.8 million last year (12 per cent increase).

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
