NEW RULES FOR DRONE OPERATORS

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is informing constituents that Transport Minister Marc Garneau has issued strict new regulations for the use of drones in Canada, from banning drunk droning, to banning drones from flying in airspace near emergency scenes and airports.

Drone operators will now have to register their drones and pass an online test to receive certification to continue operating them. These new changes apply to drones between 250 grams and 25 kilograms that are operated within the pilot's sight, regardless of whether the drones are being used recreationally or for work.

RCMP WARN PUBLIC OF FRAUD HAPPENING IN LEDUC

Submitted by Leduc RCMP

Leduc, Alta – Leduc RCMP are investigating two separate frauds in the City of Leduc. It appears the victims received a phone call from a fake bank manager claiming they are trying to catch a dishonest bank employee. The fake manager requested the victim meet them in a parking lot and give them money.

Leduc RCMP are reminding the public the bank would never call someone requesting a meeting in a parking lot to exchange money.

Please contact Leduc RCMP at 780-980-7267 or your local police if you have fallen victim to this fraud or have information to share with the RCMP. If you wish to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), online at www.P3Tips.com or by using the "P3 Tips" app available through the Apple App or Google Play Store."

CANADA SUMMER JOBS 2019 NOW OPEN

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is encouraging organizations in his riding to apply for the 2019 Canada Summer Jobs (CSJ) Program. This unique funding initiative helps employers create summer job opportunities for those between the ages of 15 and 30.

Please note that updates have been made for CSJ 2019 that will make it easier for employers to provide good quality summer jobs.

- Fewer barriers to good quality jobs: expanded eligibility to include all youth between the ages of 15-30 who are legally entitled to work in Canada – not just students.

- Updated eligibility criteria: the eligibility criteria have been changed to set out what is and isn't eligible for funding.

- Better job matching: All positions will be posted on jobbank.gc.ca and on the app, to get the word out and help match young people with employers and good quality jobs.

Everything can be submitted online through the Government Grants and Contributions Online Service. You can complete the application at your leisure and track its status once it has been submitted.

Funding is available for not-for-profit organizations and public and private sector employers with 50 or fewer employees. If you are a non-profit organization you can receive up to 100 percent of the provincial/territorial minimum hourly wage, as well as employment-related costs. Public-sector employers and small businesses can receive up to 50 percent of the provincial/territorial minimum hourly wage.

CSJ focuses on local priorities, including:

- 1.Organizations that provide services to, and that express an intent to hire, youth who self-identify as being part of the groups which are underrepresented or have additional barriers to the labour market;

- 2.Opportunities for youth to gain work experience related to the skilled trades;

- 3.Opportunities for youth in rural areas, remote communities and Official Language Minority Communities;

- 4.Small businesses, in recognition of their contribution to the creation of jobs; and

- 5.Organizations which deliver supports or services to seniors.

I encourage you to take advantage of this program and apply for funding by January 25th, 2019.

For more information on CSJ, including the eligibility criteria and application guide, visit Canada.ca/Canada-summer-jobs, a Service Canada Office or call 1-800-935-5555.

"Canada Summer Jobs is designed to focus on local priorities, while achieving tangible results for both our youth and our communities, and I know it will benefit many," concluded MP Eglinski.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Peter, at a New Year's party, turns to his friend, Ken, and asks for a cigarette. 'I thought you made a New Year's resolution to quit smoking,' Ken responds. 'I'm in the process of quitting,' replies Peter with a grin. 'Right now, I am in the middle of phase one.' 'Phase one?' wonders Ken. 'Yeah,' laughs Peter, 'I've quit buying.'

UPDATE FROM THE JANUARY 7 RALLY IN DRAYTON VALLEY

Submitted by Tim Cameron, Chair Person | Rally Canada

January 8, 2019

This is an update and follow through on the media coverage of our rally in Drayton Valley last night. We would like to provide the following information to ensure everyone is aware of what happened, and the facts involved:

- 650-750 peaceful, respectful attendees (confirmed from sign in sheets) braved -22C temperatures to show their solidarity to insure Albertans are aware of what is happening with this process.

- There were no confirmed threats communicated to the RCMP, Town of Drayton Valley or County of Brazeau Administration.

- Sunchild First Nations Band Councillor Joey Pete stood with us and stated that his First Nation is supportive of the energy industry, and HAVE NOT been consulted by the government in any respect towards the proposed Bighorn Park/PLUZ land use changes.

- The Counties of Ponoka, Westaskiwin, and Parkland are now supporting Brazeau County's measures to spread awareness of the lack of consultation, and the poorly managed process to date.

- The Town of Drayton Valley water treatment plant manager is quoted as stating that: "The quality of the water upstream of Drayton Valley is excellent, and that it could be drank right out of the river, although he would never recommend it." Additionally, through previous experience, he stated that the water quality downstream of the major centers is much more of a concern.

Rally Canada has the following requests to the Government in Power:

- The government announce that this process is postponed until after the next election, at which time it can be restarted and conducted both thoroughly and properly.

- If they are unwilling to do so then the current minister needs to be removed from this process as the successive series of abysmal failures has eroded all public confidence that the outcome could be achieved properly and take into account, the volumes of people who have not been consulted.

The net result of the Government in Power's efforts to date is public and industry uncertainty, and that is unacceptable considering the already unstable economic situation that exists within our Province today

INFORMATION NIGHT DESIGNED TO HELP THOSE WHO HELP US

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin, Corporate Communications | City of Leduc

First responders in the Leduc area have suffered severe mental stress injuries as of recent, and the time is now to dispel stigmas and any negative association of mental illness and those working within the emergency services industry.

“As a firefighter/paramedic, a husband and father...if we’re more aware of the resources available to us, it could potentially save one of us,” says Daniel Sundahl, a firefighter/paramedic with Leduc Fire Services. “We need to be tearing down the barriers of what society deems ‘perceived normal’ and ‘perceived abnormal’ when it comes to mental illness and do more to educate others on the mental health resources available to those in this industry.”

This free event at the Maclab Centre for the Performing Arts, Jan. 22, 2019, will host six speakers, including Sundahl, on various topics, such as post traumatic growth, All Services Kinship, Legacy Place Society, Alberta Critical Incident Provincial Network, re-integration, and the Strathcona Firefighter Paramedic Spouses Association.

“In our role as community leaders, we want to put the spotlight on the issue of mental health in this industry to help shed any perceived stigma others may view when they think of mental illness,” says Leduc Fire Chief George Clancy. “We know first responders experience PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder) two times the average population, and paramedics have the highest rate among first responders. We must take a stand now by demonstrating our support to our brothers and sisters, letting them know there are resources and people out there who can help. And it all begins with talking.”

Although each seat is accounted for, Sundahl says there may be a possibility of hosting a second information night due to the overwhelming response.

For more information, visit the event page on Facebook or call Leduc Fire Services at 780-980-8485. This event is hosted by Sundahl and Leduc Fire Services.

TRANS MOUNTAIN PIPELINE

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

On December 10th in the House of Commons, Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, stated the following:

“Mr. Speaker, a third of the Trans

Mountain pipeline runs through the greatest riding in Canada known as Yellowhead.

The people of my riding are hurting because of the Liberals failure to properly deal with the crisis facing Alberta. Thousands are unemployed, and its vital resources are not getting to market.

The Liberals new four and a half billion-dollar pipeline sits in limbo.

Residents of Drayton Valley, one of Yellowhead’s largest communities, held impromptu meetings and a large rally, where over 1,000 people joined last week along with national and local media. People voiced their concerns over the lack of action by the federal government and their local NDP government for having deaf ears to the plight and crisis of Albertans.

The Trans Mountain pipeline needs to be built.”

SPEAKER WANNER ISSUED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF FORMER SPEAKER GENE ZWOZDESKY

Submitted by Legislative Assembly of Alberta

On behalf of the Members of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, Hon. Robert E. Wanner, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, offers sincere condolences to the family of Hon. Gene Zwozdesky, former Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta.

“It was with great sadness that I learned of Mr. Zwozdesky’s passing. Anyone who ever met him knows that Gene Zwozdesky was a force of energy who lived every moment to its fullest. He cared deeply about his family, his community and his province. With a distinguished public service career spanning more than 20 years, his never-ending zest for life makes his passing seem almost surreal,” said Wanner.

On April 23, 2012, Gene Zwozdesky was elected to his sixth term as the MLA for Edmonton-Mill Creek. He was elected as the 12th Speaker of the Legislative Assembly on May 23, 2012.

Before becoming an MLA, Mr. Zwozdesky worked as a teacher, administrator, professional musician and business owner. He was also the Executive Director of the Alberta Cultural Heritage Foundation and of the Alberta Ukrainian Canadian Centennial Commission, as well as Music Director for the Shumka Dancers and Cheremosh Dancers. Following his time at the Alberta Legislature, Mr. Zwozdesky continued to show dedication and leadership through his involvement with the Alberta Association of Former MLAs.

“While I did not have the pleasure of working directly with Mr. Zwozdesky, I can speak to his undeniable commitment and his legendary charisma,” said Wanner. “I was so appreciative of his advice and assistance during the transition into my role as Speaker.”

“On behalf of all Members of the 29th Legislature, I extend my deepest sympathies to his loved ones and to the many people he impacted throughout his life and career.”

Among the new rules:

- You can’t pilot a drone while under the influence of drugs or alcohol, or within 12 hours of consuming alcohol;

- You must be over 14 years of age to apply for basic registered ownership and pass a test to become a certified pilot;

- Drones cannot fly higher than 122 metres above ground level, or 30 metres above a building or structure;

- Special certification is needed if you want to transport weapons or explosives;

- You can’t transport living creatures on your drone; and

- Unless a certified first responder, drones cannot fly over or near an emergency scene.

The new regulations come with fines between $1,000 and $3,000 for individuals but can rise much higher for corporations or anyone deliberately breaking the rules. Violators who deliberately fly near an aircraft’s flight path could be subject to fines of up to $25,000 and even jail time depending on the severity of the offence.

It will cost $5 to register a drone, and the pilot exam for basic operations costs $10, while the test for advanced drone operations is $25.

The new rules around drone operations that exist now will continue to apply until these new provisions come into effect on June 1st of this year.

“Remember: Drones are an object in our air space. Flying one means you are a pilot, whether you operate one for fun, work or research,” concluded MP Eglinski.

Submitted by Nikki Booth, manager of Communications and Marketing Services | City of Leduc

Wednesday, January 2, 2019

“On behalf of Leduc City Council and city administration, I want to express our deep disappointment that a letter like this has been sent to an Indigenous family in our community. This letter does not represent the spirit of our community, which is one of diversity and inclusion.

Our city prides itself on being a caring community that is welcoming and supportive of every person in the community – no matter age, sexual orientation, or ethnic background. We do not tolerate any kind of hateful behaviour.

We are working with the RCMP to ensure the appropriate steps are taken to investigate this letter and ensure the family’s safety.

The City of Leduc will be reaching out to the family through our Family and Community Support Services to provide any resources the family may find beneficial. It is important to us that this family feels accepted and supported in our community.

Together, we will ensure Leduc continues to be a safe and healthy place to live and raise a family.”

LEDUC COUNTY FIRE CREWS RESPOND TO INDUSTRIAL EXPLOSION IN NISKU

Submitted by Katherine Degaust, Communications Coordinator | Leduc County

At approximately 8:15 a.m. on Dec. 27, an industrial explosion occurred in the Nisku Business

Park at 8 Street and 13 Avenue.

“Our crews, including more than 20 firefighters from Station 1 (Nisku), Station 6 (Calmar) and Station 5 (EIA) worked quickly to evacuate the building,” says Leduc County Fire

Chief Keven Lefebvre. “After a primary search of the building, a decision was made to allow acetylene tanks, which were on fire, to vent off. This will mitigate risks on scene.”

At this time, the cause of the explosion is still under investigation.

Crews will remain on scene as required.

More information will be shared as it becomes available.

LEDUC COUNTY COUNCIL APPROVES 2019 INTERIM BUDGET

Submitted by Lindsay Chambers, Communications Coordinator | Leduc County

Leduc County council unanimously approved the 2019 interim municipal budget, which represents a 1.5 per cent tax dollar budget increase over the 2018 final budget, on Thursday, Dec. 6. The decision followed four days of public deliberations.

“The interim budget — which reflects council’s commitment to providing high-quality, cost-efficient operations — means we can maintain the level of services our residents expect and deserve, and undertake new initiatives that will enhance the quality of life for our citizens: - Mayor Tanni Doblanko

The interim operating and capital budgets are set at $85 million and $13 million, respectively.

“Throughout the process, council made difficult decisions that reflect the current economic climate, and that will minimize the impact to our citizens and businesses, many of whom are experiencing economic changes.” - Mayor Tanni Doblanko

The approved interim budget allows important projects to proceed or continue before council approves the final budget in the spring. Council and administration will continue to monitor the budget until tax rates are set.

2019 property tax notices will be mailed to all ratepayers in May.

A BIG HORN RESPONSE

Submitted by MLA Mark Smith | Drayton Valley – Devon Constituency

Sometimes it is hard to know where to start when trying to respectfully respond to an individual or a political party that you disagree with on any issue but especially on the most recent NDP fiasco – the Big Horn Proposal.

Perhaps you start by addressing the trust issue and the actions of the Minister of Environment and Parks when she created the Castle Wildland Provincial Park when she promised to continue to permit off highway vehicle use on existing designated trails and then backtracked on that promise shutting down almost all OHV use in the Castle region.

Will this be the same fate for the West Country Public Land Use Zone? The documents provided by Alberta Environment and Parks that address the Big Horn Proposal say that OHV use will continue on all designated trails and designated areas giving the impression nothing is going to change. When I asked how many of the existing trails in the West Country PLUZ are designated trails the answer I was given was that there were no designated trails in the West Country PLUZ. In light of the actions in the Castle region one has to seriously wonder what the real situation will be regarding OHV use or any industrial activity once the government begins applying regulatory policy to the Big Horn Proposal.

The consultation process has been deeply flawed with the Minister claiming that the process had become dangerous. Now any intimidation, threats, or harassment is completely unacceptable. I would of course condemn any documented incidents – but, to date, there appear to be no such documented incidents. This then leads a person to wonder if disagreement over government policy and the exercise of our free speech is the new standard for deciding that the government will not meet with Alberta stakeholders.

Environmental groups like Y2Y and CPAWS are two of the groups pushing the Bighorn park plan and both are recipients of foreign-funding from the Tides Foundation, an anti-oil and gas group. Many conclude that the real reason for this Big Horn Proposal is that foreign money and environmentalist want to shut down the West Country to economic opportunity and recreational activity. This would appear to fall in line with this government supported trend of using the environment as the excuse for piling regulation and taxes upon an already struggling oil and gas industry.

Clearly, serious consideration should be given by this government into removing the Minister of the Environment from this file and starting over. Good public policy needs to have the support of the people, do no harm and where possible increase economic activity. This proposal misses the mark and the government should hit a reset button on this issue. A real and respectful consultation process must be initiated that listens to and at the end of the day results in a land use proposal that has the support of Albertans in general and with the users and stakeholder groups of the West Country in particular.
