EMOTIONAL SAFE SPOT: FCSS OFFERS FIRST STEP FOR MENTAL HEALTH

Submitted by Yellowhead County

Yellowhead County's Family and Community Support Services Department (FCSS) believes that everyone needs someone to talk to. When we are struggling socially and emotionally, life takes a toll. Knowing what to do next can be daunting. Understanding the sort of support you may need can be a shortcut to finding wellness. Maybe you just need to hear yourself think or let someone know that you're having a hard time. That's why our FCSS department has undergone extensive mental health-related training to better serve our residents during these difficult times. The Emotional Safe Spot program is meant to provide a place for people in the community to share the mental health struggles they might be facing, in a confidential and safe space.

CONSERVATIVES FIGHTING FOR CANADIANS WHO ARE LOSING HOPE

Submitted by Gerald Soroka, MP for Yellowhead

I keep hearing from countless residents here in Yellowhead who have real worries and concerns for the future. Too many Canadians are losing hope. Justin Trudeau says, "we're all in this together," but the truth is Canada has never been more divided.

Conservatives led by Erin O'Toole are proud to fight for every single Canadian on an issues important to them.

Canada is also facing a unity crisis. Conservatives value and respect all Canadians. Workers in our natural resource industries contribute to building roads and hospitals across the country, not just in the provinces where the resources are found. They need our support.

There is also a desperate need to provide practical help for small businesses, particularly family-owned businesses. Many are teetering on the edge of bankruptcy, and there must be more direct support for them.

Finally, Conservatives will continue to support free and fair trade with countries who follow the rules. For far too long, Canada has paid a high price for trade with Communist China. We are a proud trading nation, but the one thing not for sale is our values.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

Submitted by Yellowhead Emergency Shelter

Imagine being a child and living in a home where you and the people you love are not safe.

Those who witness or experience abuse as a child are likely to be affected as an adult and may have a variety of life on-going issues due to childhood trauma. The more adverse children experiences a child has the more likely he or she is going to suffer from things like heart disease and diabetes, poor academic achievement and substance abuse later in life. The Centre on the Developing Child states, "these events can include, but are not limited to, physical abuse, emotional abuse, and household violence."

Children who have witnessed abuse or have feared for their safety, and in extreme cases, their life, may show signs of child traumatic stress. Although the impact is unique for each child, children may show signs of behavioral difficulties, sleep disturbances, constant worry, anger, physical complaints, withdrawal from social activities and general malaise. Children and teens are aware of 80% of all violence in the home and their feelings about these occurrences can carry as much impact as the actual event. Children may also suffer from anxiety separation caused by excessive worry about the safety of family members when they are away from the home.

The sooner a child receives help, the better chance they will have for being a healthy adult. One recommendation, by Salud America!, based upon their research review on childhood development suggests, "high quality early care and education programs that provide stable, supportive relationships with caring adults should be more available to young children who are at risk of experiencing tolerable or toxic stress."

There are several other ways to help in the recovery for children that have been exposed to family violence. The best solution is to remove the sources of stress in children's lives by immediately removing the sources of fear and danger. Reinforce to the children often that none of the adult abuse is their fault and reinforce that they can still love their parents, but it is okay to hate the abuse. Offer emotional and physical safety with boundaries by keeping consistency with routines in place. Encourage a safe loving environment with the child, their siblings and the abused parent.

Remember, if you or your children are in immediate danger call 911. The Yellowhead Emergency Shelter offers free, confidential support to anyone who calls 24 hours day, 365 days/year, including holidays. Staff can answer any questions you may have about your children's safety. Also, the shelter is a safe, temporary place to stay. You can reach the shelter by calling 780-865-5311 or 1-800-661-0937.

Stores will be rolling out some great deals, as we kickoff the Holiday season. With prices falling like snowflakes, come out and take advantage of the offers and giveaways to be had.

Due to COVID, this year the event will not just be an evening event. Instead, the fun begins Friday morning and lasts through until 8:00 p.m. at most stores. Hopefully, this will result in fewer customers in a store at any given time. Participating stores this year include Family Clothing, Claire's V&S, Vimar Books, Evansburg Inn, On a Whim, Golden City Bistro, Hans down Liquor, and Unique Repeats.

The fun begins Friday morning, and lasts through until 8:00PM at most stores.

Go and enjoy the beautifully lit trails. Please bring a donation to the food bank or Santa's Anonymous.

The Evansburg Legion will not be hosting the Legion Home Based Business and Craft Fair, as before. Some vendors may be located in the Mainstreet Market location in the early afternoon, depending on weather. The stores will be lit up and inviting customers to some of the best deals of the year. Look for loss leaders, draws, games and give-a-ways. It's sure to be fun for the whole family.

GYPSD RECEIVES AN 'A' ON RECENT COVID-19 SCHOOL SAFETY AUDITS

Submitted by Grande Yellowhead School Division Grande Public

Earlier this month, GYPSD completed the last of the pandemic safety audits, and our schools met and/or exceeded the expectations established by Alberta Health Services for their work in setting up health and safety procedures, protocols, and supplies to help reduce the spread of COVID-19.

Some of the items 'checked off' by the provincial Occupational Health and Safety Officer included:

- Staff access to an adequate supply of masks, gloves, hand sanitizer, and disinfectants

- Posting of COVID-19 related signage in visible locations

• Protective barriers

- Review of current COVID-19 School Re-Entry Plans, and

- Physical/engineered measures put into place to eliminate or control the hazard of COVID-19 in the workplace.

The Division extends a huge thank-you to school leaders and staff for ensuring GYPSD schools are doing everything possible to minimize risk to students, staff, and community members!

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
