Legion Asking for Double Vaccinations

After a long (and sometimes heated) debate, the Legion membership voted to ask for proof of double vaccination for all Legion events. With the fourth Covid wave heating up, it's almost the only way the Legion can remain open and still meet all AHS restrictions.

It was not an easy decision. As one member put it, "No matter which way the vote goes, some people will be upset." We apologize to those choosing not to be vaccinated, but this decision means that those medically unable to be vaccinated will be able to attend Legion events with some measure of safety.

Help Required to fill Legion Positions

As with a lot of businesses, over the past 18 months the Legion has lost people either through attrition or by choice.

That means a number of positions are vacant, and the remaining people are burning out through the stress of handling more than one responsibility.

The legion needs a volunteer coordinator, sports officer, hall rental coordinator, among others. Some positions can be done by phone from your home. If you feel you can help, please contact Neil at 587-785-3080.

Friday Dinner

The meal for Friday, September 17, is still to be set, so watch social media for details. Don't forget to reserve your spot by the evening of Wednesday, September 15 by calling or texting Linda at 780-907-6300.

Dinner Reservations

PLEASE RESERVE ahead of time if you're planning to come to a Friday dinner. If your plans change, you can always cancel so someone else can take your spot. Without a reservation, you may be asked to wait until everyone who did reserve is served before you can eat. On occasion, there have been so many walk-ins that the volunteers (who eat last) have been the ones going hungry. Call or text Linda at 780-907-6300 up to the evening of the Wednesday before each dinner to ensure enough food is prepared.

Christmas in October

Normally the Legion holds a "Christmas in October" dinner to raise funds for the local food bank. This year, however, because of the reduced numbers attending Friday night dinners, this will not happen. Instead, the Legion will make a donation directly to the food bank.

$340 MILLION FOR ALBERTA RANCHERS DUE TO DROUGHT

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta ranchers can apply for up to $200 per head through a $340-million support program.

Producers can apply for an initial AgriRecovery payment through the 2021 Canada-Alberta Livestock Feed Assistance Initiative to help cover feed and water access costs for breeding female livestock across the province.

"Alberta's livestock producers have experienced exceedingly dry conditions for months, putting additional stress on the very Albertans who feed Canadian families. Alberta's government is proud to support the delivery of up to $340 million in much-needed relief to help our livestock producers make it through this difficult season." Devin Dreesen, Minister of Agriculture and Forestry

"We're here to support producers in times like these. This funding helps Alberta's livestock producers and beekeepers sustain their operations during challenging times." Darryl Kay, CEO, Agriculture Financial Services Corporation Payments will flow soon after applications are received. Once applications are approved and processed, those who sign up for the direct deposit option will see payments toward the end of the month.

Taking a feed-need approach, supplemented by receipts, a secondary payment of up to $106 per head will be available to producers who have experienced extraordinary costs as a result of the drought, in addition to the initial payment.

Cattle and bison will be eligible for an initial payment of $94 per head and a secondary payment of $106 per head, for a total of $200 per head. Other livestock will be subject to a different per head payment.

The program will be administered through Agriculture Financial Services Corporation (AFSC). Program terms and conditions are posted on AFSC's website.

An AFSC Connect account is required to receive payments. Directions on how to sign up for AFSC Connect are available on AFSC's website.

HOW TO PREPARE A HOME FOR ELDERLY RESIDENTS

Upon reaching retirement age, new retirees may face decisions regarding their living arrangements. Some seniors may opt to stay put, while others may want to downsize their homes to save money and relieve themselves of the burdens of maintaining larger homes.

But those are not the only situations seniors find themselves in. Some seniors realize they can no longer care for themselves without assistance. In such instances, seniors may opt for assisted living facilities or choose to move in with a relative, such as a grown son or daughter. While assisted living facilities are designed to meet the needs of the elderly, young men and women welcoming seniors into their homes may need to take on some home improvement projects to ensure their homes are as safe as possible for elderly residents.

· Convert a room on the first floor into a bedroom. While this may not apply to all seniors, some men and women struggle with stairs as they age, and that can make it difficult for them to fully participate in a household. Homeowners with an extra room to spare can convert a room on the first floor of their homes into a bedroom so seniors won't have to climb up and down stairs throughout the day. That ease of accessibility to the primary floor of the house encourages seniors to be active participants in a household. If possible, choose an area that is close to a first-floor bathroom.

· Take steps to make bathrooms safer. The National Institute on Aging says that more than one in three seniors over age 65 fall each year, and 80 percent of those falls take place in the bathroom. Slippery tile floors can make it difficult for seniors to navigate bathrooms safely, and bathtubs and shower stalls present additional challenges. Install grab bars on bathroom walls and next to toilets to provide support.

fall HOME RENO GUIDE

In addition, consider installing a shower chair or bench and removable shower nozzle in the shower or tub so seniors can sit down while they bathe and rinse without having to stand up on slippery surfaces. Make sure any mats around bathtubs and sinks are nonskid to reduce the risk of falls even further.

· Install an extra phone line or two. While kids and adults between the ages of 18 and 50 may never use the landlines in their homes, many seniors still rely on traditional telephones as their primary means of communicating with the outside world. Install extra landlines in your home, including in seniors' bedrooms, so they can more readily access the phone should they fall and need to call for emergency help. Phones in seniors' bedrooms may also provide some additional privacy to seniors who don't want to carry on phone conversations in busy areas of the home, such as the kitchen or living room. Such lines may also reduce feelings of isolation.

· Prioritize accessibility when storing items. When storing groceries, books, magazines, or other items seniors are likely to use, choose locations that are accessible to seniors. Avoid storing items on the top shelf of pantries, bookcases or entertainment centers, as seniors with limited mobility may not be able to reach them.

Many seniors move in with their adult children to make their golden years safer and more enjoyable and manageable. Such a change in living arrangements may necessitate some changes on the part of homeowners so they can ensure their homes are safe for seniors.

HOW TO ADDRESS CEILING STAINS

Many stains are instantly noticeable. But while a wine stain on a light-colored carpet or a gravy stain on a white shirt tend to jump out right away, other stains sneak past our radars every day. Ceiling stains are one type of stain that tend to go unnoticed for long periods of time. But ceiling stains can be unsightly, and some are even indicative of a larger problem, so it pays for homeowners to address stains on their ceilings as soon as possible.

- Start with the source.

Low kitchen ceilings tend to fall victim to oil stains, which are an unfortunate side effect of cooking. But not all stains can be so easily traced to their origins. Some ceiling stains, such as those in bathrooms, may be a byproduct of mold, while others may be indicative of plumbing problems. Identifying the source of a stain is often the first step toward eradicating it.

- Fix the problem.

Once you have identified what's causing the stain, fix the problem as soon as possible. Ceiling stains are often indicative of much larger problems, and the longer those problems are allowed to fester, the bigger they become. Some water stains on ceilings result from cracks or joints that have not been adequately sealed or caulked. Reseal or recaulk any cracks you suspect are leading to ceiling stains. If you have determined a leaky roof is behind your stained ceilings, then have the roof inspected for damage, and prepare yourself to finance a new roof if the inspector determines that's the best solution.

- Cover nearby furniture. If you find ceiling stains above living areas, then be sure to cover the furniture below such ceilings with a tarp. Even if your stain solution will be made primarily of water, you don't want to risk compounding your ceiling stain problem by staining your furniture as well.

How to Address Ceiling Stains

Remove the stains. Different stains require different treatments. A solution made of water and bleach may be effective at removing ceiling stains, but only apply such solutions on days when you can open the windows and air out your home. Larger stains may require the application of a stain blocker, which may need to be applied with a roller and brush. No matter the stain, you need to leave time for the ceiling to dry before you can move on. Opening the windows can prevent your home from being overcome by the smell of bleach and also speed up the time it takes the ceiling to dry.

Cover the ceiling with primer. Once the ceiling has completely dried, you can apply a stain-blocking primer to prevent future stains. Allow the primer ample time to dry.

Apply a fresh coat of paint. After the primer has dried completely, you can then repaint the ceiling. Some paints may blend in even if you only paint the affected areas of the ceiling, but others will require a complete repainting of the ceiling. The eye test will help you determine how much work you have to do in that regard.

COVID-19 UPDATE FOR WHITECOURT

Submitted by City of Whitecourt

As announced by the Province on August 13, the Government of Alberta has extended select public health restrictions to September 27, 2021.

Some public health measures were set to expire on August 16; however, the Province has decided to keep specific restrictions in place for another six weeks. Measures that will remain in place until September 27 include:

- Mandatory masking orders in publicly accessible transit, taxis and ride shares. This includes school buses.

- Mandatory isolation for 10 days for those with COVID-19 symptoms or a positive test result.

- Testing at assessment centres for any symptomatic individual.

For further information on current public health guidelines currently in place throughout Alberta

please visit

www.alberta.ca/coronavirus-info-for-albertans.aspx Vaccine Program

Albertans aged 12 and over are encouraged to book their first and second dose of COVID-19 vaccination. COVID-19 vaccines help prevent you from being infected, and protect you from getting severely sick if you do get it. All vaccines are safe, effective, and save lives.

- Provincially, 67.9% of 12+ population is fully vaccinated.

- Locally, Whitecourt's vaccination rate is lower than the Provincial average, with only 49.1% of 12+ population fully vaccinated.

The provincial government has compiled information on each of the vaccines available to Albertans, and a listing of facts about the vaccine program on its website. Information is available at www.alberta.ca/covid19-vaccine-myths-and-facts.aspx

WATER QUALITY ADVISORY ISSUED FOR ALBERTA BEACH

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

Due to elevated levels of fecal bacteria currently present in the water at

Alberta Beach area located within the North Zone of Alberta Health Services (AHS), AHS is advising the public not to swim or wade at this beach area, effective immediately.

Elevated levels of fecal bacteria were detected via testing of the lake water at Alberta Beach. As well, there is the possibility of skin, ear and eye infections with water contact.

As always, visitors and residents are reminded to never drink or cook with untreated water directly from any lake or reservoir, at any time. Water-borne organisms, including fecal bacteria, can cause vomiting and diarrhea.

AHS Environmental Public Health officers will continue to monitor the water at Alberta Beach.

This advisory will remain in effect until further notice.

Alberta Health Services is the provincial health authority responsible for planning and delivering health supports and services for more than four million adults and children living in Alberta. Its mission is to provide a patient-focused, quality health system that is accessible and sustainable for all Albertans.

Golfer's GUIDE

DON'T LET GOLFING PAIN BE PAR FOR THE COURSE

) A little know-how can help golfers avoid unnecessary injury. Considering the number of times a swing is repeated during a game, it's not surprising that the season often ends early for those who are not physically prepared.

Below are a few simple stretching techniques that can help prevent or reduce the impact of injuries:

Side bending stretch

1. Stand with feet shoulder-width apart.
2. Hold the golf club above your head with your arms straight.
3. Slowly bend to one side, without rotating, until you feel a stretch in the side of your back.
4. Hold for 15 seconds and repeat twice for each side.

Shoulder stretch

1. Hold the shaft of a golf club vertically behind your back.
2. Gently pull the club up with your top hand until you feel a slight stretch in the shoulder of your lower arm. Hold for 15 seconds.

3. Gently pull the club down with your bottom hand until you feel a stretch in the top shoulder and arm.

4. Hold for 15 seconds.

5. Reverse hand positions and repeat.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
