WARNING BUSINESSES OF BITCOIN SCAM

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

Alberta RCMP have received a number of complaints from businesses who have fallen victim to the Head Office Bitcoin scam. Over the past several months, fraudsters have been targeting businesses throughout the province in a sophisticated scam in order to receive Bitcoin currency, defrauding both employees and businesses out of thousands of dollars.

Staff would receive a call from a person claiming to be a regional or district manager. In many cases the fraudster has researched the names of staff and managers. The fraudster had detailed information about the operations of the businesses, including the names and roles of various staff persons and store policies. This famil-ilarity with the stores convinces the employee that the fraudsters were who they claimed to be. The staff are told that an important shipment is imminent and receiving it is vital.

The staff are then advised that there has been a problem with the payment for the shipment and the only way to not delay it is an immediate payment in bitcoin.

A second caller claiming to be an employee of the shipping company then calls to confirm the shipment and provide a tracking number and advises that payment is required before delivery.

In some of the incidents, employees took money from the store to the bitcoin ATM. In the others incident, the employee took both funds from the store and from their own personal account to the bitcoin ATM to make the payment.

The first caller would stay on the line with each employee until they completed the bitcoin transaction. It was only after completing the transaction that the employee realized they had fallen victim to professional fraudsters.

Alberta RCMP are encouraging businesses to protect themselves by providing in-house fraud awareness training and sharing warnings like this alert with their staff. Institute clear, two-step approval processes, using a code word or id number for financial transactions, and empower your employees to say "no" to potential frauds.

WHITECOURT TOWN COUNCIL UPDATE

Submitted by Town of Whitecourt

The Whitecourt & District Library Board attended the May 24 Regular Meeting of Council to provide an update on the Whitecourt Public Library's current financial situation. Board representatives noted that 2021 and 2022 operating funding has yet to be received from Woodlands County, which has caused a significant operating deficit. As a result, the Library may be forced to layoff staff and close the doors to the public as of August 1, 2022 unless funding is received. In support of the Board, Whitecourt Town Council will be forwarding a letter to Woodlands County requesting the matter be addressed as soon as possible.

Whitecourt is hosting a Pride Celebration and BBQ event on June 24 at Rotary Park. The event will include crafts and activities to celebrate the LGBT2Q+ community in Whitecourt. Follow the Pride Celebration & BBQ Facebook page for updates and further information.

Whitecourt will be participating in the Alberta Municipalities Power+ Energy Program for a ten-year term starting in 2024 for the supply of electricity. Locking in electricity rates will provide budget stability and minimize the impact of changes facing the energy sector.

Council has approved first reading of Bylaw 1567 that will close Road Plan 4273KS to accommodate the future consolidation of Town owned lots north of the Seniors Circle. The Bylaw will be submitted to Alberta Transportation for approval prior to Council providing final readings of the Bylaw.

Whitecourt has created an Ad Hoc Culture & Events Centre Partnership/Sponsorship Committee. The Committee will work to garner support for the proposed facility.

WHAT MATTERS TO YOU

Submitted by MLA Shane Getson

Early in my career I was told by a Senior Project Manager by the name of Keith Hanson that the two most important words in any language were a person's first and last name. Pronounce them correctly, spell them correctly and remember them. He also had another mantra that he drilled into me which was the Economy of words. Seems ironic now that I ended up here, but in my former career, it was vital. The economy of words was to ensure we didn't waste time of the reader.

On projects, everything is time sensitive, and is scheduled. The most valuable thing you have is time, and it is continually managed.

Flying an aircraft, altitude, and fuel give you time in the air. The fuel is obvious, without it, you are a glider, and that is where the altitude comes in, the higher you are above terra firma, the more time you have to find a safe spot to land, what goes up, must come down, it's just a matter of time.

To me the most valuable thing that we possess and can give others is our time. We are born, and we die. We don't know how long we have, we should be cognizant that our time is finite, as are those around us. The less time we have, the more precious it becomes, not only to us, but what we give of it to others. I imparted this lesson on my kids. Back then I was away from home for weeks at a time for years at a time, the days we had together were precious, and it was the most valuable thing that we had.

I was recently at a celebration of life for Mrs. Lori Florkewich that took place out at the Carvel Hall, hearing how much she gave of herself to others, her community, her family, local not for profits, and to a number of political boards was simply awe inspiring. I had a chance to speak and thank Lori, and her family for the time she gave up to help me on my own board.

Time is precious and I hope that we can remember that here. We only have a limited amount before the next election, and Albertans expect us to make the most of it. Let's ensure we get the work done in the time we have left that will mean the most to them and park the "Partisan Politics" until next spring.

PROMOTING CRIME PREVENTION LICENCE PLATE ANTI-THEFT SECURITY SCREWS

Submitted by St. Albert RCMP

St. Albert RCMP, in partnership with St. Albert Neighbourhood Watch, will be providing free licence plate anti-theft security screw installation on Saturday, May 28, 2022 at Servus Place in the northwest parking lot, between 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

St. Albert RCMP says the anti-theft security screws, a set of locking bolts, can be installed on vehicles to ensure your licence plate is not taken off your vehicle. While the devices will not help your vehicle itself from being stolen, RCMP say using the screws will prevent thieves from using your plate on another vehicle, which then may be used in criminal activity.

PARKLAND RCMP RESPOND TO HIT-AND-RUN INVOLVING MOTORCYCLE

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

On May 30, 2022, at approximately 6:50 a.m., Parkland RCMP received a report of a hit-and-run collision between a truck and a motorcycle on Highway 44 on the overpass at Highway 16 in Parkland County.

The motorcyclist suffered life-threatening injuries and has been transported to hospital. His identity will not be released. The driver of the truck fled the scene.

Traffic is blocked on Highway 44 at Highway 16 while the investigation continues. Parkland RCMP are asking drivers to find an alternate route. Traffic is expected to be affected for several hours. Traffic on Highway 16 is unaffected.

The truck is described by witnesses as a grey Dodge Ram 1500. Parkland RCMP are asking for anyone with information to come forward to help identify the driver of the truck.

SEARCH WARRANT RESULTING IN DRUG AND WEAPONS CHARGES

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

On Feb. 9, 2022, Parkland RCMP initiated an investigation into 26-year-old Chanelle Vandal-Lauman of Edmonton, after receiving information that she was trafficking methamphetamine.

Parkland RCMP's Crime Reduction Unit and Parkland RCMP's Drug Unit worked in partnership to conduct surveillance and were able to observe multiple instances consistent with drug trafficking.

During the investigation, police were also able to identify a male who had an outstanding Canada-wide warrant for being unlawfully at large. 30-year-old Sidney Goossens of Edmonton was apprehended in cooperation with Edmonton Police Service.

On May 10, 2022, Parkland RCMP's Crime Reduction Unit and Drug Unit conducted a search warrant on Chanelle Vandal-Lauman's residence in Edmonton. The search resulted in the successful recovery of illicit drugs believed to be methamphetamine, cocaine, and fentanyl, as well as tools used in the drug trafficking trade.

During the search police also located a loaded handgun, ammunition, firearm parts, a machete, throwing knives, hard body armour, a security guard uniform, face coverings, zip ties, and break in tools.

At the time of her arrest, Chanelle Vandal-Lauman was bound by a Conditional Sentence Order stemming from a previous drug-related conviction. The order included conditions not to possess any intoxicating substances and not to possess any weapons.

Chanelle Vandal-Lauman is facing the following charges:

- Possession for the purposes of trafficking x3
 - Possession of property obtained by crime
 - Unauthorized possession of a firearm
 - Possession of a restricted firearm with ammunition without a licence
 - Careless use of a firearm
 - Tampering with serial number of a firearm
 - Possession of a weapon for a dangerous purpose
 - Unlawful possession of body armour without a valid permit
 - Possession of counterfeit money
 - Breach of Conditional Sentence Order
- Chanelle Vandal-Lauman remains in custody. She is set to appear in court on June 1, 2022, at Stony Plain Courthouse via CCTV.

HELPFUL AND HARMFUL INSECTS

Although it's virtually impossible to count them, insects are the most diverse group of organisms on the planet. Nine hundred thousand different kinds of insects are known to exist. At any given time, it is estimated that there are around 10 quintillion individual insects living.

Gardeners grow frustrated when seeing their gardens infested with insects. In an effort to restore their gardens, homeowners might be tempted to eradicate any bug that moves in their yards. But gardeners would be wise to first learn which insects are hurting their gardens and which can actually help gardens in the long run.

Harmful

Certain insects can be dangerous to animals and plants. The following are a handful of insects that can threaten the vitality of gardens.

Aphids: These insects suck on the juice needed to sustain plants, particularly when they congregate.

Bald-faced hornet: Hornets tend to be an aggressive species that can sting repeatedly. Should you find a nest near an entertaining space or garden, it can cause trouble.

Carpenter ants: These ants will burrow into wood causing damage. They may compromise any wooden structure in and around a home.

Locusts: Various species of locust can damage plants and crops due to their voracious appetites. Treehoppers: These small, green insects mimic the look of leaves, and their appetites can affect crops and gardens.

Red pavement ant: As they feed on all manner of human food, these ants can quickly overtake areas with their staggering numbers and deliver painful bites.

Grasshoppers: Certain grasshoppers, like the red-legged grasshopper, can decimate food crops and transfer parasites to birds when eaten as prey.

Caterpillars: Many caterpillars, the precursor to adult moths, will feed constantly on leaves, stems and other parts of plants. The tobacco hornworm moth caterpillar can damage potato and tomato plants.

Helpful

Plants depend on insects to transfer pollen as they forage, and many insects are quite beneficial to have around. While some pollinate, others are predators of other pests.

Antlion: A foe of ants, they'll help eat and control ant populations and pollinate flowers. They pose no threat to humans, either.

Big dipper firefly: These colorful insects feast on earthworms, slugs and snails during the larval stage. Fireflies add drama to evening gardens with their twinkling lights.

Garden spiders: Although some spiders can be venomous, many are quite handy to have around the garden. They'll help control pest populations that can damage plants and crops.

Dragonflies: These aerial artists that zip around the yard are consuming smaller insects that would otherwise pester plants and humans.

Blue-winged wasp: This wasp attacks the larvae of Japanese beetles, helping to control beetle populations.

Bees and butterflies: Butterflies and bees are some of the best pollinators out there, and each can add whimsy to gardens.

REIMBURSEMENT FOR EXTRA PASSPORT FEES CHARGED

Submitted by Gerald Soroka, MP for Yellowhead

Gerald Soroka, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, asked the following question in the House:

"Last week I questioned the minister about Kristen from Hinton, who, after waiting over two months, ended up having to pay express service to get her three sons' passports. The minister replied that if a person submits all required passport documents and Service Canada is outside service standards, the client should not be paying extra fees.

Will the minister confirm that Kristen and others who paid extra fees will receive a refund and no Canadian would pay extra fees due to this minister's incompetence?"

Reply:

Hon. Karina Gould (Minister of Families, Children and Social Development, Lib.):

Madam Speaker, as I said last week, that is correct. No Canadian should be paying extra fees if, in fact, they have submitted all the correct documents and everything is in order with their application, and if their application is not processed within the processing times.

If that is in fact the case, there is a refund process. I would be happy to follow up with the member opposite to share with him how he could share that with his constituents, but it is also available on the Government of Canada website.

TALKING WITH YOUR KIDS ABOUT ALCOHOL

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

Talking with your kids about alcohol doesn't have to be uncomfortable.

When you take the time to have a conversation, and you are open to hearing what your child has to say, you are giving your child or teen the guidance they need to make healthy decisions.

Here are some tips to start a conversation about alcohol:

- Encourage questions and listen well to what your kids have to say to you
- Be brief and neutral when explaining the facts
- Try to understand your child's point of view.

By respecting one another's views, you will encourage future conversations and you'll encourage your kids to come to you with questions.

COOPERATING WITH EDMONTON POLICE TO LOCATE STOLEN PROPERTY AND ARREST WANTED MALE

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

On May 23, 2022, at approximately 11:30 p.m., Parkland RCMP were informed that Edmonton Police had followed a motorcycle with a stolen licence plate from Edmonton and into Spruce Grove. The motorcyclist stopped at a residence associated to 45-year-old Jesse Sutor of Spruce Grove. At the time, Jesse Sutor had several outstanding warrants for his arrest, and was bound by conditions to remain inside the residence between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. daily. Parkland RCMP attended the residence with Edmonton Police. Jesse Sutor was located hiding in the garage and was arrested by police. The motorcycle, stolen licence plate, and a stolen ATV were recovered at the residence.

Jesse Sutor has been charged with the following:

- Possession of stolen property x2

len property x2

- Driving while prohibited
- Failure to comply with conditions of a court order

Jesse Sutor remains in custody and is next set to appear in court in Edmonton on May 27, 2022.

CHOOSING THE CORRECT CAR SEAT FOR YOUR CHILD

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

In Alberta, all children under six years of age or weighing less than 18 kilograms (40 pounds) must be secured in an appropriate child safety seat that is properly installed in the vehicle. Proper use of a child safety seat has been shown to reduce the likelihood of a child being injured or killed in a motor vehicle accident by as much as 75 per cent. Choosing the correct type of child safety seat is an important step in ensuring your child is safe.

Rear-facing car seats

A child is safest in a rear-facing car seat until they are at least two years old, or when they reach the maximum weight or height limit for a rear-facing seat (as stated by the manufacturer). Rear-facing car seats with higher weight and height limits are preferred. They keep a child in the safer, rear-facing position beyond age two. Don't rush to put your child in a forward-facing seat. The rear-facing position is the safest.

Forward-facing car seats

A child who is at least two years old or has reached the maximum weight or height limit of the rear-facing seat (as stated by the manufacturer) may ride in a forward-facing car seat. A child must use a forward-facing car seat until they reach the seat's maximum weight or height limit (as stated by the manufacturer). Some forward-facing seats may be used with the five-point harness for children up to 30 kg (65 lb).

Booster seats

An adult seat belt alone does not properly fit a child's body because it sits too high on a child's belly and neck. This can cause serious injuries in a crash. A booster seat helps the seat belt safely fit a child's body. Once a child has reached the maximum forward-facing weight or height limit of their car seat (as stated by the manufacturer), they can move into a booster seat. A child is safest in a booster seat until they reach the seat's maximum weight or height limit (as stated by the manufacturer).

Make every ride a safe ride

Read the instructions that come with the car seat and the instructions in your vehicle owner's manual before driving with a child. Find a free child car seat clinic near you or take a Child Car Seat YES Test. It is a self-check tool for choosing, installing, and using a car seat or booster seat.

KNOW THE RISKS INVOLVED IN VAPING

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

What is a vape?

A vape is an electronic smoking device that contains a cartridge of liquid (e-juice) or other forms of nicotine (or cannabis) that are heated into a vapor and inhaled by the user.

Vaping is not harmless

Vaping can increase your exposure to harmful chemicals and lead to nicotine addiction. The short and long term health effects are unknown, but recent reports are showing significant respiratory and health effects such as lung failure, seizures and even death.

Although rare, some vaping devices may catch fire or explode, leading to burns or injuries.

What should parents look for?

Parents should pay attention to an unusual attachment to a USB stick, sharpie, pen, lipstick, key fob, etc. These items may be electronic cigarettes "disguised" as everyday items.

Talk to your teen about vaping

Alberta Health Services recommends talking to your teen about electronic cigarettes (vape) early, even as young as age 10.

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
