The driver was arrested and a search of the vehicle incidental to arrest led officers to locate a loaded sawed off 12 gauge shotgun which was by the drivers seat. The vehicle was seized and a search warrant obtained. Further search of the vehicle led to the discovery of 5 grams of Fentanyl and 18 X 1 ounce bags of Methamphetamine.

Cody Chase Letendre (30) of Whitecourt, Alta., is now facing 16 new charges, some of which include:

- Flight from Peace Officer
- Possession of a restricted weapon

100 YEARS AGO MODERN EDUCATION CAME TO THE HAMLET OF ONOWAY

Submitted by Onoway and District Historical Guild

A perfect day for a memorable event! On June 10, a crowd gathered in front of the old brick school to recognize the role this remarkable building played in the lives of many people who lived in the Onoway area.

The original Beaupré School opened in 1905 (the day Alberta became a province) just west of Onoway, near the bend where highways 43 and 37 join. As the population increased and the railway was built, the local school board received a government grant to build a bigger school north of the hamlet of Onoway, across the railway tracks. The building was completed under budget and earlier than planned and was officially opened in February, 1922. Miss Husband taught in the junior room and...

LAC STE. ANNE EAST FOOD BANK

Submitted by Lac Ste. Anne East Food Bank

What is a food bank? A food bank is a free service that collects and gives out food basics to people who do not have enough to eat.

Our food bank has been operating for more than 35 years, serving the eastern half of Lac Ste Anne County, including the areas of Onoway, Darwell, Rich Valley, and Sandy Lake.

The generous donations of food and funds by numerous organizations, businesses, churches, and individuals, as well as the hard work of many volunteers, are what keeps the food bank open and able to assist those in need. It takes an entire community for a food bank to be successful.

Anyone in need of assistance can contact the food bank at (780) 271-3131

Requests for hampers must be received by noon on Tuesdays and then pick up is from the food bank

Wednesday mornings between 9 & 10am

We accept donations of non-perishable food, personal hygiene items, pet food and monetary donations. If you are making a food donation, please check the date and make sure the item(s) have not expired as we cannot give these items out to our clients. Food donations can be dropped off at the Food Bank between 8am & 10 am Wednesday mornings or at the ATB in Onoway. Monetary donations can be dropped off at the Food Bank during Wednesday mornings, they can be mailed to Box 300 Onoway, AB T0E 1V0, or e-transfers are accepted at lacsteanneeastfoodbank@gmail.com. Whichever way you choose to make a monetary donation, please include your name and mailing address in it so that we can issue a tax receipt.

One last thing, our food bank is operated by a very small group of volunteers, and we are always closed for the month of August to give this group a well-deserved break. Phone messages and emails will still be received but replies may be delayed. Requests for hampers will be taken again starting Sept 3rd.

100 Years Ago Modern Education Came To The Hamlet Of Onoway

...Mr. Bramley in the senior room – with 42 students registered. By May, 62 students were registered. And that was just the beginning!

What a sight Beaupré School was! A huge (for those days) brick building with two classrooms and a basement! The school expanded in different ways (and directions) over the years until it was decommissioned in 2007.

Among those attending this centennial celebration was a wide cross-section of people: students who had attended school in this building, former principals, curious newcomers to the area, descendants of Beaupré students. One of the highlights of the day was a poem recited by Ruth Schultz, who will be celebrating her 100th birthday in August. Recited totally by memory with no notes and no flaws, Mrs. Schultz was a perfect example of a diligent student back in those days.

Another shining example of times past was a brief greeting from former principal Erna Bontus-Miller who took on the role of principal when Onoway Elementary and Onoway Jr. Sr. High School were formally separated into two distinct schools in 1969. Prior to that, even though grades 1 to 12 were taught in two different buildings, there was a single administrator.

MLA Shane Getson, Mayor Len Kwasny, Reeve Joe

Blakeman, and Superintendent Kevin Bird from Northern Gateway Public Schools brought greetings, recognizing the achievements of the past and the wish for continued educational success in the future.

The grand finale of the celebration was unveiling a plaque set into a stone in front of the Brick School – a permanent reminder of when education in the hamlet of Onoway began.

Following the formal ceremony, attendees were invited to explore the museum and take in the many new exhibits throughout the building. Many visitors stopped in at the archives where they were able to look at the school registers from when they went to school at Beaupré. They were reminded of all their classmates, their teachers, and even of major achievements (like perfect attendance!).

Education in schools today is a totally different world from that of the early 1900s. Onoway is very fortunate to still have its first school (in mint historical condition) and a respected museum which helps preserve the memories of those days long gone.

ARMY CADET NEWS

Submitted by Captain R Heinz, CD

With the easing of covid restrictions lately in the Canadian Cadet Movement, the staff and cadets of 3053 (Lac Ste Anne) Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps have been able to conduct more "normal" training.

On April 3rd we conducted Marksmanship training with the Daisy air rifles at the gym in the Onoway Historical Centre, which also serves as our Local Headquarters (LHQ). The junior cadets were given lessons in range safety, parts of the air rifle and marksmanship techniques while the senior cadets were able to "shake the cobwebs" as they aimed at their targets. It had been over two years since we last were permitted to conduct this training. The cadets did surprisingly well and the juniors were very excited to finally be able to have fun with this optional training.

May 15th the staff conducted a Sports/fitness day combined with a summer biathlon component. The weather was warm and sunny and perfect for this activity. After the cadets were warmed up and had completed their cadet fitness testing, they were divided into two teams for the competition. Each team member had to shoot at their targets inside the gym and then run outside along the fence perimeter and back into the building to shoot at another set of targets; they had to do this three times! Whew! The scores were very close so we stated that "they were all winners".

The final exercise that we were approved to do this training year was held on June 12th at Edmonton Garrison. The cadets were taken to Area D for map and compass training. It was fantastic that the cadets were able to put into practical use in the field all the lessons they received this year virtually and in-person at the LHQ.

Again the weather fully cooperated with dark clouds overhead but no rain until we were heading home. The participating cadets had a fun time and learned plenty, and this will definitely assist them next fall when we begin training again.

We would like to acknowledge and Thank some local organizations that donated funds to the unit since we were not permitted to conduct any fundraising activities the last couple years:

The Royal Canadian Legion Branch #132 Onoway (the cadet unit's official sponsor), the Onoway Radio Network and the Alberta Beach Lions club. The funds donated will assist the unit with expenses occurred last year and for recruiting next training year. Thank you again!

The final activity is open to the public and will occur Saturday June 25th at 6:45pm in the gym behind the museum. We will be conducting our Annual Cadet Review (ACR) as we acknowledge each cadet's personal achievements over the last several months. Parents, guests and friends of the unit will be able to attend with the only covid restrictions they need to follow will be social distancing. If a person wished to wear a mask, they can but otherwise masks are not required.

It has been a difficult journey for the corps but we are all ready to move forward and appreciate your support and encouragement. Cheers

FREEDOMS

Submitted by MLA Shane Geston

We think we live in a “Free” country; I’ve heard it said often. I’ve said it myself in the past, heck our provincial motto is “Strong and Free”, our national anthem has a famous line we all know: “The True North, Strong and Free”. Over the last few years however, I have developed some very real concerns over the erosion of our freedoms.

Not everyone shares my concerns, as I have found that the definition of ‘Freedom’ varies from person to person, depending on where they live in our country, where they live in each province or territory and what age they are. It also depends on how much of their freedom they really use; kind of a use it or lose it thing. You see, there has been a steady erosion of personal freedoms in this country for years, under the guise of safety, or for the better good. So how much better off are we? Was it worth it? How free are we now compared to former generations?

My friend John is 85 years old now, he’s one of the guys who was on site at the time standing up the first tower at Syncrude. John was a Boilermaker by trade and has worked all over North America; he has several good stories that I can guarantee will have you laughing for hours. John still flies airplanes, has been married to the same lady since he was 20, and still manages to stay young by living life. John moved out to B.C. several years ago now to be closer to his daughter and his grandson. John, like many, cannot recognize what has become of our country, and how we got to where we are. I’ve often jested with John and several other gents in his age bracket that: “they got to do everything, so my generation could hardly do anything!”. When I look at what has happened since 2014, I feel that my kids will be thinking the same thing about my generation.

It has been famously stated before, on a court stand no less, when terrible events were being reviewed, as to how a particular government was able to coerce an entire population into either turning a blind eye or joining in the persecution of others all while restricting the overall freedoms of its citizens. The secret ingredient is of course, FEAR. If you have a population that is fearful, they are easier to influence, and it’s easier to make them identify another group as the threat. Once you’ve been successful with sowing this division, they will allow you, and in some cases even ask you, to take away their freedoms so that you can protect them from the very threat that you have invented. Even better is when you can get them to fight amongst themselves. History is repeating itself, and the only way we can ensure that it does not get to the point where we must hear the “truth” on a court stand is to really identify what our personal lines are, what is important to us, and what freedom truly means.

About 6 years back my friend John called me out of the blue and told me to sell everything and move up to the Yukon. You see, John was getting bored, and took on a job as a hot shot driver for a company that salvaged planes, and subsequently supplied parts to the aviation community. One day, outside of Whitehorse, he had trouble with a wheel bearing on the trailer he was pulling those plane parts on. He could not believe it when the very first car that was passing, pulled over, and took him into town to a repair shop, no charge. Then, the repair shop set him up with parts, tools, a jack, everything he needed to make the repair, and lent him a vehicle to go back to fix the trailer. No charge, just bring back what you didn’t need and settle the account then. When John was in a restaurant, people were talking to each other face to face;

their cell phones and social media were all parked. “Shane, this is just like it used to be in Alberta, like it used to be in BC, sell all your things and move to the Yukon, it’s where Canada still lives.”

Six years later, we have seen the erosion of personal freedoms, we have seen the vilification of people who may have opposing opinions, we have seen blatant propaganda when it comes to agendas on numerous topics, and we have seen the consolidation and payout of corporate media.

We have seen under the guise of public health and safety, a varying degree of restrictions imposed on populations, we have seen a national restriction of movement of people within their own territories far exceeding any other ‘free’ country. We have seen the segregation and vilification of citizens based on their personal health choices; information that at one time was extremely private and personal being demanded for service or employment. We have seen acts reserved for conditions of war being used to quell civil protest, and with that, citizens being charged with misdemeanors and/or imprisoned for several months. We now see a bill before the Senate that essentially ushers in the censorship of free speech and public expression.

New laws are threatening freedoms and constitutional rights that a mere 6 years ago I never could have imagined possible. I ask you this: what do you value? What freedoms have you given up, knowingly, or passively, that you may never get back? These could become freedoms that your children may never know and never miss because they never had them in the first place. Erasing history, sanitizing it, being ‘Woke’. If this is how we move forward, giving up freedoms and erasing history, how are we supposed to learn from our mistakes in today’s world?

This has happened before and we all knew that it was bad, right?

That’s when our great-grandfathers, grandfathers, and fathers took up arms and fought for freedom on foreign shores to ensure that we would never have to experience that at home. While we still have the chance, we can choose to draw the line, keep the freedoms we have, and grab back those that have been taken.

We can do this in a civil manner, we can choose to support people who believe in the same, we can choose leaders who will make this policy on our behalf. I believe that there is still time, but it will not be up to someone else to do. It will take people who value their freedoms to participate fully in the process to flex their democratic muscle, the folks that are taking your freedoms are counting on you to be apathetic, it’s the reason they have been able to get this far so fast.

You must be part of the process: buy a membership to a political party and help form the policies of the party that will shape the platforms. Help choose the leaders of that party, ensuring that they have the same values, and if they form government that they will protect your rights and freedoms.

I’ll be seeing John this weekend, along with a number of old mentors that I’ve had over the years while on projects. People who have taken time to teach me, to be there when I needed them, who have shared stories of how things used to be. We will be at a “Celebration of Life” when we say goodbye to our friend Wayne. It’s been 2 years since many of us have been able to see one another, because of the travel restrictions. I’m sure the subject of freedom will come up, and I for one will be glad to hear about the good old days and will work as hard as I can to make them a reality for my kids. They will be buying their memberships, participating in the process, and doing what they can to keep their freedoms, and I hope you will do the same.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
