SANGUDO COMMUNITY SCHOOL STUDENTS RECEIVE FIRE PREVENTION TRAINING

Submitted by Sangudo Community School

On Tuesday, October 10, Sangudo Community School participated in Junior's Firefighters Challenge by Redd Swing

Productions. This firefighter obstacle course, built just for kids, was well received by students and staff. Thanks goes to Lac Ste. Anne County FCSS and Alberta Association of Agricultural Societies Farm Safety Grant for funding the program. The event was organized by Sangudo & District Ag Society in partnership with the Sangudo Public Library.

STATEMENT ON THE PETITION E-4460 AND BILL C-336, NOAH'S LAW

Submitted by MP Gerald Soroka

Members of Parliament Blaine Calkins, Gerald Soroka, Damien Kurek, and Senator Pierre-Hughes

Boisvenu, hereby issue the following statement:

"Bill C-336, known as Noah's Law, represents a significant piece of legislation designed to bolster the safety of vulnerable Canadians, with a particular emphasis on women and children. This bill aims to accomplish this by introducing critical amendments to both the Criminal Code and the Sex Offender Registry Act.

"In response to MP Gerald Soroka's introduction of Bill C-336, MP Blaine Calkins has presented Petition e-4460 in the House of Commons. This petition has garnered substantial support, with nearly 22,000 Canadians fervently urging the Government of Canada to promptly address the deficiencies in the justice system.

"Petition e-4460 specifically calls for the implementation of the following provisions outlined in Bill C-336:

"Mandatory Reporting Requirements: Establish mandatory reporting requirements for convicted sexual offenders whenever they change their place of residence.

"Failure to Comply as an Offense: Specify that the failure to comply with these reporting obligations constitutes an offense, resulting in the issuance of an arrest warrant.

"Dedicated Classification for Offenders: Create a dedicated classification for offenders who have been convicted of sexual assault offenses against children and received sentences exceeding two years or those convicted of two or more violent sexual offenses or offenses involving the abduction of women and/or children.

"The urgency of this proposed legislation cannot be overstated. Canada's justice system necessitates immediate action to address its shortcomings and safeguard the most vulnerable members of our society."

President's Message

Last week I outlined the various ways in which individual Branch Poppy Funds may be used to promote Remembrance and support veterans, including Canadian Armed Forces and RCMP, and their families in need.

This week, I want to tell you specifically what the Onoway Legion's Poppy Fund has done over the last year:

•We paid cash prizes and presented certificates to students at five local schools who placed first, second or third in the Poster and Literary contests promoting remembrance. ($970.00)

•We paid educational bursaries to children and grandchildren of veterans ($3,000)

•We contributed to the Kipnes Centre for Veterans to provide amenities to the veterans who live there - including a Branch member ($500.00)

Onoway Legion News

•We donated funds to our local Army Cadet Corps for use in programming not covered by the Department of National Defence ($2,157.04)

•We transferred funds to support the tireless work of the Alberta-Northwest Territories Command Service Bureau who help veterans to obtain disability awards for injuries attributable to military or RCMP service (whether or not they are Legion members). ($1,000)

•We provided emergency financial assistance to one of our local veterans in need. ($1,464.94)

All these funds were raised from individual donations made in the same type of poppy boxes that you see in various businesses and offices during the annual Poppy Campaign, as well as from individual donations made to the Poppy Trust Fund throughout the year. On behalf of the Onoway Legion and the veterans we support, I thank everyone who has taken the time to donate according to your ability to do so. Every donation helps us with our important work.

Remember, if you have any questions or concerns about our programs at the Onoway Legion, you can contact me, Ed Gallagher, your Legion Branch President, directly at 780-297-2203.

Wednesday Pub Night and Musical Jam

The musical jam is still happening every Wednesday evening at the legion, starting at 7 pm. Everyone is welcome. You're invited to bring an instrument to play, or to sing along with the band or as a soloist. If you'd rather, just tap your feet, sit and listen, or dance. Not musical? You can play darts, pool or cards while you enjoy the music. The bar is open for refreshments with your

Pool and Darts Clubs

Both the regular pool and darts are drop-in groups, and you don't have to be a member to take part in either of them. Just show up at the Onoway Legion Hall to make sure your name is included for that night's play.

Each Thursday, the pool balls are racked up. Play begins at 7:30 pm, so please arrive no later than 7:15 to be included in the evening schedule. Darts go every Tuesday, with registration at 7 pm so everyone can be assigned to a team for play to begin at 7:30 pm.

Did You Know?

The annual Remembrance Day Service will be

November 11 at the Onoway Heritage Centre (the museum). Everyone is welcome, but please be in your seats by 10:30 am. The service will begin about 10:45 am.

IS IT TIME FOR YOUR MAMMOGRAM?

Submitted by Alberta Health Service

Screen Test is coming to Mayerthorpe November 16 to 20, 2023 and Onoway November 21 & 22, 2023

Screen Test is a free service provided by Alberta Health Services that offers screening mammograms. Our mobile screening units travel to 121 communities throughout Alberta to provide convenient access to breast cancer screening.

Having regular screening mammograms is the best way to find breast cancer early, before symptoms appear and when treatment may work better.

Who should have a screening mammogram?

If you're 45 to 74, you don't need a referral to have a mammogram. Make screening part of your regular health routine. Plan to have a mammogram every 2 years or as decided by you and your healthcare provider.

If you're 40 to 44 or over 75, discuss the risks and benefits of screening with your healthcare provider. You will need a referral if you're 40 to 44 and it's your first mammogram, or if you're over 75.

Call 1-800-667-0604

(toll-free) to book a mammogram with Screen Test.

Breast density scores are now included in your Screen Test result letter

Breast density is the amount of dense tissue compared to the amount of fat in a person's breasts. It can be harder to find cancer in dense breasts because this tissue appears white on a mammogram, the same colour as many kinds of breast cancer. It's common to have dense breast tissue.

Dense breasts are only one of many risk factors for breast cancer. Other factors, such as age and genetics, have a bigger impact on your overall risk. You can't tell how dense your breasts are by size, look or feel. The only way to find out is by having a mammogram.

Talk to your healthcare provider about your breast density score and your personal risk of breast cancer. Learn more about breast density on screeningforlife.ca

For more information on Screen Test and breast cancer screening, visit screeningforlife.ca

"IF IT AIN'T BROKE, DON'T FIX IT!"

Submitted by MLA Shane Getson

This old saying has been passed down for generations with hopes of imparting some commonsense wisdom. It was true in the day of my Grandparents and will hold true in the days of my Great Grandkids. The nuance however is when to apply it, and when to realize that the state of "Conventional Wisdom" may not always be wise. If you don't explore options and ask yourself and others, "why", and "how do you know", you may be in for a world of hurt, or run the risk of being irrelevant. Doing it the same way out of convention may not be the best course of action when the mother of all invention requires a change. Necessity, for resilience, and the need to adapt for survival.

We can all be sure there is an energy transition on the horizon. I'm not convinced that those that are crowing from the top of the proverbial barn yard pile and that know the cause of the forgone solution in their minds are any wiser than a barn yard rooster we had when I was a kid. That old rooster was very sure of himself, toughest one around, and took a run at my mother and I on several occasions when we went to collect eggs. When that rooster tried, all tough and sure of his supremacy in the barn yard, the reality set in a hurry when the rooster was missing his head. We were having chicken for supper, and my father had a wing for cleaning off the chaff that collected on the radiator of the old combine. That tough as nails, crowing from the barnyard pile, full of himself rooster was dead wrong in his assumptions and assertions.

I've heard my share of roosters lately saying that we need to "Dismantle" the energy sectors here in Alberta, because hydrocarbons are the cause of "The Climate Crisis". They are so certain that regardless of carbon capture or utilization, that shutting it down is "The" only solution, and don't even bother asking if Carbon is the issue, and if you eliminate the carbon then how is there still a problem? How dare you question their "known solution".

I have also heard from similar roosters crowing away that the agriculture sector, anything that produces meat from the land rather than a laboratory environment is a major contributor to "The Climate Crisis". I have also heard some of these same roosters crowing that we must rely on wind and solar to produce electricity so that we can make hydrogen. Now one of the clean solutions that they had, and were crowing about, was to make "Green Jet Fuel" by taking "Green Hydrogen" then they can combine it with carbon to produce "Green Jet Fuel".

So by their definition you need clean fresh water to make green hydrogen so we can make a hydrocarbon, instead of taking hydrocarbon from the ground, not wasting fresh water to make jet fuel so we can save the water for drinking and growing crops to feed people. The Roosters have little consideration to how we obtain the basic elements and the exorbitant amount of energy needed to get to their bright future, they are good at crowing though.

You see, setting up parameters and policy to allow for the technical solutions to the problem is not relevant to these roosters, they have already settled on the solution, too bad those dammed engineers keep stalling and wanting to solve the problem themselves rather than taking the roosters solution at face value. Who needs relevant research, calculations, proof of concept, or considering economics? Who needs to consider the fallout by rushing headlong, and who cares what the cost will be to regular Albertans?

There is going to be an energy transition, we have seen this happen before, and we will see it happen again after this one is over. We need to make sure we take the time to get it right when we do transition. We need to realize that despite how much the roosters crow we need to take the time to work the problem. Many of us know full well that if we get this wrong it will cause harm to millions of people for a few generations. That possibility is of little consequence to the roosters. Your sacrifice is something that they are willing to make. Guaranteed, they will be no where to be found if their plan goes sideways, that it will be your fault, you just didn't believe soon enough in their emotional plan.

We have a chance to not only participate in the energy transition, but we are also able to help others, and to literary be world leaders. We have enviable options that other jurisdictions simply don't have. A plethora of conventional energy, a low population, a large land mass, fresh water, fresh air, and a highly educated and skilled work force. We can't sell ourselves and future generations of Albertans short, even if the roosters crow from the CN tower, or, from a big building in Ottawa. A recent court decision on Bill C-69 has affirmed that despite the feelings of a few, the constitutional facts of many still prevail in the "True North Strong and Free".

Where the "Ain't Broke" argument recently fell short in my opinion was on regards to the CPP third party study that was performed, because of the feedback received from Albertans during the Fair Deal Panel. The study has been released, and wow, was it a shocker. When 15 percent of the population, owns 53% of the fund, there is a conversation to be had on what is fair, and what decisions Albertans can make to determine the future of their portion of the plan. Knowing the status of the plan, and what options Albertans have, in my opinion is a big deal.

I was a bit taken aback, but not surprised of the comments made by the current PM, where basically he would apply the "Hotel California" rule unilaterally to the plan, and the option to withdraw from the plan. This PM has demonstrated several times in my mind that he believes that rules, laws, and contract terms don't apply to him, or his team. In his mind, it would appear, like the Eagles sang famously in their song "You can check out, but you can never leave". When the PM says he won't "Allow" Albertans to make a choice, it kind of sounds like a bait and switch to me.

Unlike the Transfer payments, or an equalization plan, we have clear contract terms under the CPP, and Albertans can indeed leave when they want and if they want. I've been asked by several senior's homes to host some "What Matters to You Townhalls" so that we can discuss the plan, and other items of interest. I'm looking to host a few hybrid meetings so that we can have a live audience, and online participants as well. If you are interested in having one in your community, please reach out to our office.

We are starting session next week and will be going into the first week in December. I've had a chance to get to know our new team since the election, and we have had a few good training sessions with the new MLAs as they are getting acclimated to their new roles. As the Chief Government Whip, I'm liking what I've seen as the entire UCP team is coming together. We may have a smaller team by numbers that we had last time, but honestly, for the folks in our area and the province as a whole, I think we are in good shape. We have a clear mandate after the election, and a clear message to ensure we stay engaged on what matters the most to folks. We won't get distracted by all the roosters, we will remember who we represent, and that we always look to the future, while keeping grounded in reality. We will offer options to folks, we will keep the communication lines open, and in person as much as possible. Often the low tech solution is the best, like this little paper that you are reading, tried and true. Afterall, if it Ain't Broke....

Dog Caretaker

Alberta Beach & Surrounding Areas, thinking of a Seasonal Getaway? Worried about leaving your dog in a kennel? Don't worry anymore, you can leave your pet with me! There is a wrap around deck and courtyard! I will provide tender loving care, with walks every day. Best of all, I'm cheaper than a kennel! Daily drop in's or overnight stays welcome.

SUDOKU of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
