PARKLAND RCMP INVESTIGATE VEHICLE ROBBERY IN STONY PLAIN

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

On Aug. 2, 2024, at 10 a.m., Parkland RCMP responded to an attempted theft of a motor vehicle on Harmony Crescent in Stony Plain. Upon arrival, emergency workers tended to a 42-year-old victim who was transported to hospital with serious life-threatening injuries. scribed as a blue Dodge truck with chrome rims and accents.

The suspect is described as a male with a light complexion and wearing a mask.

The second suspect who was driving the Dodge truck is described as a female with a light complexion and blonde hair.

PREMIER TO ATTEND AGRA FAIR 2024: CELEBRATING OUR AGRICULTURAL HERITAGE IN SPRUCE GROVE

Submitted by Spruce Grove and District Agricultural Society

The Spruce Grove and District Agricultural Society is thrilled to announce that Honourable Danielle Smith, Premier of Alberta, will join the community for the Agra Fair 2024 at the Agra-Central Park in Spruce Grove, Alberta.

The Premier will be attending Saturday afternoon of the weekend August 24-25, 2024.

This annual event promises a weekend filled with family-friendly activities celebrating the region's rich agricultural history and vibrant community spirit.

The Agra Fair traces its origins back to the founding of the Spruce Grove and District Agricultural Heritage Society in 1972. What began as a local initiative supported by federal and provincial funding to build the Agra has blossomed into a beloved tradition that connects urban and rural lifestyles. This year's fair, marking its revival in 2022 on the Society's 50th anniversary, continues to uphold its commitment to preserving local heritage and supporting agriculture and horticulture.

"We are honored to welcome Premier Danielle Smith to the Agra Fair 2024,"

Vandals had set fire to a farmers haystack which then spread to his barn. While he surveyed the wreckage, his wife called their insurance company and asked them to send a check for £30,000 the amount of insurance on the barn. "We don't give you the money," a company official explained. "We replace the barn and all the equipment in it."
 "In that case," replied the wife, "cancel the policy I have on my husband."

WATER SAFETY: STAY SAFE WITH AHS' SUMMER TIPS

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

Alberta Health Services (AHS) wants Albertans to stay safe while enjoying the province's lakes and rivers this summer. Following these safety tips will help you avoid serious injury and illness during recreational water activities.

There is always a risk of injury when swimming, especially in unmonitored bodies of water. Here are a few ways you can prevent water-related injuries and illness:

•Wear a proper fitting Canadian-approved life-jacket or Personal Flotation Device (PFD) in a boat, kayak, canoe or other water sports and make sure it fits.

•Make sure young children wear lifejackets when they are in, on, or around the water and be aware of fast-moving water. Stay right beside your child.

•Swim with others when there is no lifeguard present.

•Avoid alcohol, cannabis and any other substance that may affect your judgment before and during water activities.

Lakes, rivers and streams may contain illness-causing microorganisms.

•Check for recreational water advisories or look for posted advisory signs at public beaches. Not all beaches are monitored for biological, chemical, and physical hazards.

•Do not swim or wade and keep pets out of water in areas where cyanobacterial (blue-green algae) blooms are visible.

•Never drink or cook with untreated water directly from any lake or reservoir, at any time. Water-borne organisms, including fecal bacteria, can cause vomiting and diarrhea.

Swimmer's itch is a rash caused by an allergic reaction to the larvae of certain parasites. The parasites can get under your skin when you swim in lakes, ponds, creeks, streams and rivers. You can't get swimmer's itch from swimming pools that are treated with chlorine.

•Shower and dry yourself off with a towel as soon as you leave the water.

•Stay away from swimming areas that have weeds. Do not wade or swim in those areas.

Alberta Health Services is the provincial health authority responsible for planning and delivering health supports and services for more than four million adults and children living in Alberta. Our mission is to provide a patient-focused, quality health system that is accessible and sustainable for all Albertans. Our current focus is on reducing emergency department wait-times, improving

EMS response times, increasing access to surgeries, and improving patient flow.

HONOURING HEROES WHO STAND AGAINST VIOLENCE AND ABUSE

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Nominations are now open for the 2024 Inspiration Awards, recognizing Albertans outstanding leadership in making communities safer from violence.

Everyone in Alberta deserves to live free of violence and abuse. In every community, there are unsung heroes who work tirelessly to prevent and put an end to domestic, sexual and gender-based violence by raising awareness, promoting healthy relationships, and empowering others to stop the cycle of abuse. Through the 2024 Inspiration Awards, Alberta's government wants to celebrate these dedicated individuals, businesses, and organizations whose compassion leads the way to safer and more welcoming homes, schools, and communities.

"Alberta is full of leaders who know they have the power to make a difference and put it to good use, and that remains the case in confronting domestic and sexual violence. These awards will celebrate their outstanding contributions in making our province a better and safer place and inspire others to do the same for years to come."

Searle Turton, Minister of Children and Family Services

This year's awards are expanding with a new category celebrating Indigenous-led efforts to address or prevent violence against Indigenous women, girls and 2S+ people, and promote the healing and well-being of Indigenous families. Other categories recognize exceptional youth leadership, long-term commitment to family and sexual violence prevention, vision, and impact, as well as collaborative partnerships, research, and innovation.

"Alberta's government is deeply committed to ending gender-based violence, with many efforts in place to make meaningful, impactful change across the province. We are actively walking the path of true reconciliation with our ongoing work with missing and murdered Indigenous women, girls and 2S+ people, and I am honoured to see the expansion of the Inspiration Awards to promote the well-being and safety of Indigenous Peoples."

Rick Wilson, Minister of Indigenous Relations

"Ending gender-based violence in Alberta will need to be a team effort between governments, communities and individual Albertans. These awards will highlight and celebrate the Albertans that are working to create a safer and more welcoming province for everyone, and I want to thank them for their dedication to ending gender-based violence."

Tanya Fir, Minister of Arts, Culture and Status of Women

Nominations can be made online and the deadline to apply is Aug. 28. Award recipients will be announced during a ceremony in November as part of Family Violence Prevention Month.

The Inspiration Awards are part of the province's ongoing efforts to prevent domestic, sexual and gender-based violence and abuse, and ensure survivors have access to the supports they need. In 2024-25, Alberta's government is providing $9.4 million for family violence prevention programs, nearly $56 million for women's shelters and nearly $17 million for sexual assault centres. A total of $54 million is also being invested to support a 10-year, made-in-Alberta strategy to end gender-based violence.

FEDERAL CAPITAL GAINS TAX: MINISTER HORNER

Submitted by Government of Canada

President of Treasury Board and Minister of Finance Nate Horner sent the following letter to Canada's Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance on the changes to the federal capital gains tax:

"I am writing to convey Alberta's strong objections to your budget proposal to raise the capital gains inclusion rate. It adds a further layer to the expanding array of federal policies harmful to savings and investment and, by extension, Canadian productivity and our future standard of living.

"Your proposed tax increase is also damaging and unfair to the many small business owners who planned for retirement and are relying on the assets they built up and held in their small businesses. I urge you to reconsider the fairness of a retroactive tax increase on their savings and investments. These individuals and families do not have the luxury of a taxpayer-supported defined benefit pension plan that you and your cabinet colleagues have.

"Like other provinces, we are also frustrated that the federal government proposed such a major change to the shared federal-provincial tax base without consultation or engagement. Measures like these are forced upon provinces and undermine our pro-growth economic policies that seek to propel our whole country forward.

"Canada's lacklustre productivity is among the biggest challenges facing Canadians, and a serious threat to our continued prosperity and high standards of living. While you argue that Canada continues to attract significant investment and that our Marginal Effective Tax Rate is still the best in the G7, you cannot deny that this tax increase will further chip away at our tax advantage. And, more significantly, it builds on the piling of federal policies harmful to investment. These policies are weakening our standing in the world, and the standard of living of our people.

"As has been noted by the Canadian, Ontario and Alberta Medical Associations, your tax increase also comes at a time when the Canadian healthcare system is under extreme pressure and our ability to attract and retain physicians is a serious challenge. Raising taxes on these professionals will only exacerbate the crisis and put more financial strain on provincial governments.

"On behalf of the Government of Alberta, I am calling on you to cancel your proposed tax increase on capital gains. Canada needs policies that promote investment, innovation, and risk-taking, not new taxes that hinder productivity."

FAMILIES ENCOURAGED TO TALK ABOUT ORGAN, TISSUE DONATION

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

AHS launches public awareness campaign, new name for program

Alberta Health Services (AHS) has launched a new public awareness campaign and revealed a new name for its provincial donation program during National Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness Week, April 21-27.

All the Ways is a series of video and print ads showing creative methods of informing loved ones about your decision to donate organs and tissues. While the campaign's tone is light-hearted, the goal is to normalize talks about deceased donation. Grieving families faced with the difficult decision to donate often find it easier if they know what their loved one wanted.

The Alberta Organ and Tissue Donation Program is now Give Life Alberta. The new name is a call to action for Albertans to register their intent to donate online at GiveLifeAlberta.ca and to tell loved ones about their decision. Albertans can also continue to register to donate at motor vehicle registry offices. Signing the back of your Alberta Health card is still accepted, although not preferred over online registration, and families must be informed in case the card is lost.

"The Government of Alberta is proud to support this life-saving program and campaign," says Adriana LaGrange, Minister of Health. "Increasing donation rates will reduce wait times for transplants and allow seriously ill patients to get back to life."

One organ donor can save up to eight lives, and a tissue donor can save or dramatically improve lives for up to 75 people. While Alberta marked another record year - with 273 organ and tissue donors in 2023 - there are almost 300 people waiting for life-saving transplants in our province. Last year, nearly 50 people on the wait-list died.

Kinza Barney applauds the effort to encourage Albertans to act on their good intentions. When the Airdrie resident received news that her 15-year-old son Zachary would not survive a dirt bike crash, her family knew what he would want. He had an important conversation with his mother weeks before, while practising for his driver's test.

"He had asked me, 'Are you a donor?' because he knew that going in to get his driver's licence, eventually that was something that was going to be asked of him," says Barney.

"I showed him my licence and said, 'See it says 'donor' and there's a little heart at the bottom. What do you think?' And he said, 'Absolutely. I want to be an organ donor.'"

Zachary's road test was scheduled for his 16th birthday in 2022. Instead, he donated his organs that day, saving five lives.

"Looking back, what a coincidence to have had that conversation with a 15-year-old ... only to be here today and having to make a decision that reflects his wishes," says Barney. "It made our decision a lot easier for sure."

AHS donor coordinators are approaching more families than ever since Alberta's Bill 205 took effect one year ago. The bill creates a more structured pathway for the organ and tissue donation process, and ensures specialists have adequate time to identify and assess potential donors and discuss the option with families.

"The families that have talked about organ and tissue donation, they are able to know exactly what their loved one's wishes are and either sign the consent or not," says donor coordinator Carey Beninger. "It makes such a difference in such a stressful time. They don't want to get it wrong. They want to be sure this is what their loved one would have wanted."

STAYING HYDRATED IN THE SUMMER

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

Summer is here and so is the heat. Remember to drink water throughout the day. Staying hydrated is crucial for many functions in the body. Our bodies need fluids to digest food, cool down, and move nutrients and waste.

Most adults need nine to 12 cups of fluid daily; however, every person's needs depend on age, sex, body size, activity level, and health status. For example, a young adult may need more fluids if exercising intensely and in hot temperatures.

Did you know?

Older adults and children are more likely to become dehydrated? Older adults have a diminished thirst sensation, and young children may not always be attentive to their thirst signals when they are busy playing. Watch for signs of dehydration, which include dizziness, headaches, feeling tired, or having a dry mouth, lips, and tongue.

Be mindful of your hydration levels at all times. Drink beverages and eat foods with fluid content to help you stay hydrated. Here are some refreshing tips to beat the heat:

- Add flavour – Infuse your water with fruits and herbs like lemon, cucumber, or fresh berries with mint

Staying Hydrated In The Summer

for a cool and citrusy twist.

- Enjoy variety – Besides water, choose unsweetened drinks like lower fat milk (1%, 2%, and skim), fortified plant-based soy or almond beverage, or iced herbal teas.

- Make fruit easy-to-go – Pack up fruit kabobs by threading strawberries, blueberries, raspberries, and grapes onto skewers.

Serve with a yogurt dip.

- Prepare a tangy and sweet fruit salad – Combine chopped apples, oranges, and pears in a bowl. Add lime juice and spice it up with a hint of chili powder for a tangy flavour.

- Make a zesty cucumber smash salad – Smash cucumbers with a rolling pin until they form bite size pieces. Add rice vinegar, sesame oil, and a dash of soy sauce. Mix and enjoy.

Common beliefs and misconceptions about drinks

Does adding a pinch of salt to water make it more hydrating?

A recent social media trend claimed that adding salt to water can hydrate better than plain water because it replaces electrolytes. It is true that electrolytes like sodium play an important role in maintaining fluid balance; however, adding salt (which contains sodium) to water is unnecessary for the general, healthy population. Most people get enough salt from the foods they eat. Adding extra salt to your water will not improve your hydration and for some people, it can harm their health. Drink tap or filtered water and eat a balanced diet to stay hydrated and maintain your electrolyte balance.

Do you need sports drinks after exercising?

You may lose more water and electrolytes if you exercise longer than one hour, or intensely, in hot and humid conditions. In this scenario, a sports drink (which contains water, sugar, and electrolytes like sodium and potassium) may help replace the water and sodium you lose in sweat. However, for most active people drinking water is enough for proper hydration.

Does coconut water hydrate better than water?

Coconut water is not more hydrating than water. Just like sports drinks, coconut water contains sodium, potassium, and sugar in various amounts depending on the brand. Aside from the additional flavour that coconut water offers, research suggests that there is little to no difference between drinking coconut water or plain water for hydration in healthy adults.

The bottom line?

Water works! Choose water most often to stay hydrated.
