CANADA SUMMER JOBS 2025

Submitted by Dane Lloyd, M.P. Sturgeon River-Parkland

The Canada Summer Jobs (CSJ) program is a great resource for non-profits and small businesses seeking to hire students over the spring and summer. Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) manages this federal wage subsidy program which will soon be open for applications. Importantly, an application's success is based on how well it satisfies the program criteria. Applications that are assessed as meeting the criteria more satisfactorily score more points; applications assessed as meeting the criteria less completely score fewer points. The higher your application scores, the higher it is ranked. The higher it is ranked, the more likely that it will be approved. Your application competes with others to be funded under the constituency's limited CSJ budget.

Members of Parliament have opportunity for input into CSJ. Each year I set local priorities for my constituency. These priorities will be made available on the CSJ 2025 webpage once the program opens. If the job you are seeking to hire for takes in one or more of these local priorities, make sure to indicate that on your application so that you can benefit from the additional points.

MPs can provide further recommendations during an MP review phase that follows ESDC's assessments. I make recommendations at this phase to increase the number of jobs being funded, to ensure the maximum budget allocation for the constituency and to make certain that local priorities are considered. That being said, I limit this input as I am not in the business of picking winners and losers.

If your business is considering applying to CSJ 2025, keep in mind the following important dates. The call for applications will open on November 19, 2024. It will close on December 19, 2024. ESDC will review all applications from December 20, 2024, to March 4, 2025. MP's will be provided opportunity to make additional recommendations from March 4 to March 14, 2025. This will be followed by the ministerial approval and employer notification phases. Applicants can expect these phases to be completed by mid-April so that they can begin hiring. Should your business operate in my constituency, and you have questions about CSJ 2025, please contact me at dane.lloyd@parl.gc.ca.

You will be missed!

This guy goes to his doctor, who says, "You have two fatal health problems. The first is inoperable cancer."
The guy says, "That's terrible. What's the other one?"
The doctor says, "You have Alzheimer's."
"Well," the guy says, "at least I don't have cancer."

On October 15, 2024, Jakob Renz passed away at 99. Jakob will be lovingly remembered by his sons, Henry (Cindy) and Norman (Maritta), and his grandchildren, Tyler, Teagan, and Kaylea. Jakob was predeceased by his wife of over 50 years, Johanna. The family would like to thank the Alberta Beach and area community for creating a friendly place to call home and, most recently, the staff at Jubilee Nursing Home in Edmonton for their loving care of Jakob. Jakob lived his dream by immigrating to Canada and becoming a farmer and family man. He took particular pride in being a Canadian, tending his land, and sharing his bountiful garden harvests. Jakob was well known for loving to tell jokes. In memory of his passing, and in lieu of a service, the family asks that you tell someone a joke to offer a fitting tribute.

CUTTING WAIT TIMES FOR WATER PERMITS

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta has reduced wait times for Water Act licences by 57 per cent to help businesses, landowners and communities manage water and grow the economy.

Water is a precious resource and must be managed to meet the province's many growing needs. In recent years, many Albertans have expressed frustration about unnecessarily long delays in getting regulatory approvals and decisions under the Water Act. These wait times delay projects, reduce economic development and limit water users' ability to adapt to changing conditions on the ground.

Alberta's government has worked to cut the red tape, bureaucratic delays and outdated processes that slow down good work. As a result of that work, timelines for Water Act licences approvals have now declined by 57 per cent over the past four years, including a 25 per cent improvement since June 2023, and this government is just getting started.

"As environment minister, I've made improving our regulatory process a priority. We can protect the environment and make timely decisions at the same time. We are seeing real improvements that help communities grow and businesses succeed, but this is just the start. We are going to keep finding ways to increase transparency, and speed up and improve all of our regulatory processes."

Rebecca Schulz, Minister of Environment and Protected Areas

Reducing wait times by weeks and months

Since 2021, the average wait time for licences under the Water Act has fallen by 57 per cent. On average, approvals are now being delivered 253 days sooner.

At the same time, the average wait time for approvals under the Water Act has fallen by 31 per cent. On average, approvals are now being delivered 70 days sooner.

The backlog of Water Act applications that are open longer than six months has now declined by 68 per cent, helping industry, businesses and communities get decisions faster and keep projects moving.

Establishing targets and improving processes

In addition to reducing licence wait times, for the first time, Alberta Environment and Protected Areas has established mandatory service targets to speed up reviews and stop unnecessary delays.

Water Act decisions must now be made within a specific time frame, unless extenuating circumstances arise. Staff are now required to assess each application and make a decision based on its deemed risk:

- Low-risk decisions must be made within 60 days.
- Medium-risk decisions must be made within 90 days.
- High-risk decisions must be made within 120 days.

These targets include the time required for public consultation, where necessary. The department will work to continue lowering these targets in the future, where possible.

Other changes have also helped speed up the system. Previously, users would also have to submit information by paper or email. Now, a new digital system is in place that makes it quicker and easier to submit and review applications. The department also streamlined its internal processes, updated the guidelines on the 10 per cent holdback and fast-tracked applications related to drought this summer.

Just getting started
Progress is being made, but there is more work to do. Moving forward, Alberta Environment and Protected Areas will focus on speeding up Water Act decisions that have not yet seen as much improvement, including complex or high-risk requests such as wetlands.

The government has also instructed the department to find ways to similarly streamline regulatory decisions under the Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act, while looking at other ways to speed up all of Alberta's regulatory processes.

CHOOSE THE RIGHT TIRE FOR YOUR VEHICLE AND SEASON

Motorists spend hours behind the wheel and spend lots of money on maintenance to ensure their vehicles are in top working order. But tires are one area of maintenance that often goes unchecked, even by the most diligent automobile owners.

Tires undergo a lot of wear and tear, which only highlights the importance of proper tire maintenance. But many drivers do not give tires a passing thought until there is a problem, such as a flat or excessive wear. Also, some drivers think that all tires are the same, failing to realize that the kind of tires vehicles need depends on various factors. In addition to the size and type of vehicle, drivers should consider the type of driving they do and the driving conditions they routinely encounter before choosing tires for their vehicles. Many vehicles come off the lot with all-season passenger tires because these tires are among the most versatile. However, if you live in a particular climate or do a lot of driving that requires specific traction or maneuverability, all-season tires may not be the best bet. The following are descriptions of common tire types and the conditions in which they might make the best fit.

All-Season
All-season tires provide all-season versatility, good wear and ride comfort.

Choose The Right Tire For Your Vehicle And Season

They can be dependable tires and offer light snow traction as well.

All-season tires provide adequate protection in many conditions, but do not offer specific benefits in any one area. They're likely to be satisfactory for a vast array of drivers. All-season tires are typically offered in touring and passenger types. Touring will provide lower road noise and better handling, while passenger varieties offer a smooth ride and longevity.

Summer Tires

Summer tires are designed to offer traction and maneuverability in warm weather. Orbital grooves and complex treads maximize traction in hot, humid weather. If you live in an area where the temperature is consistently steamy, summer tires may be a good investment.

Winter Tires

A safety precaution for many people who live where conditions often include snow, ice and cold weather, winter tires can be lifesavers. These tires are designed using several different types of rubber, and feature tread designs that maximize traction during inclement conditions. Winter tires also come in various subcategories. Stud-dable winter tires provide the extra security of added studs to enhance traction on ice. Performance winter tires offer better dry road handling, but traction on snow and ice may be compromised.

Performance Tires

Performance tires offer a sports car feel. These are meant for drivers who want to feel the road and increase low-speed traction. The higher the level of performance, the increased level of handling and stability at high speeds.

Truck Tires

Trucks, pickups and SUVs also have a variety of tire types. There are off-road varieties, which will offer an aggressive tread design for off-road traction and other obstacles. Light truck tires help provide durability and traction. Specially designed SUV tires may be large, but can still offer comfort-focused applications designed for on-road driving.

Drivers looking for better performance from their tires should speak with a tire retailer about the options available to them.

DIRECT LINE TO ENFORCEMENT SERVICES

LSAC.ca/enforcement

Community Peace Officers (CPOs) enhance public safety by focusing on crime prevention, bylaw enforcement, and fostering community relationships. Acting as approachable, trusted figures, they mediate conflicts, promote safety awareness, and bridge the gap between law enforcement and the public.

The County now has a phone number specifically for Enforcement Services. To report a situation that requires the help of a Community Peace Officer, please use our online Report a Concern tool or call 780.785.3630. Please note – for emergencies dial 911.

JOB OPPORTUNITY

LSAC.ca/careers

The County seeks a Childcare Programs Facilitator for the Onway Out-of-School Care Program.

Join our team! In this role, you will plan, develop, and implement a variety of activities and events designed to support the out-of-school care experience.

This opportunity will remain open until a suitable candidate is found.

SNOWPLOW FLAG PROGRAM

LSAC.ca/snowplow

The County helps property owners clear snow from their private driveways through its Snowplow Flag Program. The clearing includes one pass of the snowplow unit in from the local road to the general parking area of the residence and one pass back out to the local road.

To use this service, please call the Public Works department to initiate a driveway inspection. Once your driveway has been approved a Hold Harmless Agreement and Snowplow Flag Order Form must be completed. These forms are available on our website or by emailing publicworks@LSAC.ca.

The next step is to purchase the flags – at the cost of $70 per flag, per clearing. Flags can be purchased in-person at the County Administration Office or via the County's online payment processor OptionPay at LSAC.ca/payments.

Then, when you would like your driveway plowed, simply call the Public Works department to have them place a digital flag on your residence in our database.

Join the FARMING FORWARD – DUGOUT INFO WEBINAR SERIES. Visit eventbrite.ca to register.

Winter hours are now in effect at the County's eight Transfer Station sites. Visit LSAC.ca/waste for locations and details.

COMMUNITY CHOIR SINGS FOR CHRISTMAS

Submitted by Lac Ste. Anne Community Choir

Get into the spirit of Christmas by enjoying one of the Lac Ste. Anne Community Choir's holiday performances. The popular choir has three public concerts planned as they sing a variety of old favourites and newer, more contemporary songs for Christmas.

Celebrate the season at one (or more) of this popular choir's performances this winter. Debbie Rosen, with help from accompanist Keat Machtemes, leads almost 50 singers in a wide variety of music for the season.

The first concert is at the Onoway Legion (4808 50 Street) on Friday, November 22. As a special bonus, enjoy a delicious Italian dinner before the performance. Choose from parmesan panko-crusted chicken with fettucine Alfredo or Italian beef ragu with rigatoni when you reserve your seat at the table by November 20 by calling or texting 780-967-5631. Dinner begins at 6 pm, with the choir's performance beginning at 7 pm. If you like, you can simply come for the concert and a few refreshments.

On Wednesday, November 27 the choir gathers for a special performance for the residents of Chateau Lac Ste. Anne in Onoway. This performance is just for residents at the centre, helping them to get into the spirit of Christmas.

The next concert is a bit further north on Friday, November 29 at the Rich Valley Agriplex. The music begins at 7 pm.

The final performance of the season is on Friday, December 13, with the traditional Friends and Family performance (where everyone who likes music is a friend!) at the Alberta Beach Alliance Church (4507 47 Street Alberta Beach). It all begins at 7 pm, and the entire audience is invited to stay after the performance to enjoy some goodies and visit with choir members.

Admission to all concerts is by gratefully accepted donations.

The Lac Ste. Anne Community Choir is open to anyone over 18. No auditions are required, and there's no need to read music or have choir experience. All that's needed is a love for singing, and a wish to meet other like-minded people. After a holiday break, registration and the first practice for the next season will be Wednesday, January 8 at the Heritage Centre in Alberta Beach (5012 - 49 Avenue). Registration begins at 6:15.

Questions? Call or text Sandra at 780-966-5678.

FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION MONTH: MINISTERS TURTON AND FIR

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Minister of Children and Family Services Searle Turton and Minister of Arts, Culture and Status of Women Tanya Fir recognize Family Violence Prevention Month:

"No Albertan should ever have to experience family violence or endure the trauma and devastating, long-lasting scars it leaves behind. This November, we're raising awareness about family violence and where to turn for support so that we can end cycles of abuse and prevent future harm.

"By investing in prevention strategies, keeping our promise to provide both women's shelters and sexual assault centres an additional $10 million, and supporting the confidential 24/7 Family Violence Info Line at 310-1818, we're ensuring there is always a safe place to turn for help, no matter who or where you are in the province.

"Thank you to all of our incredible family violence prevention partners and every Albertan who has courageously stood up to make communities across the province safer from violence. For anyone who has experienced family violence, know that you're not alone and there are always supports and resources available when you need them."

Searle Turton, Minister of Children and Family Services

"Any form of violence, whether it be family violence or gender-based violence, must be stopped. That is why our government is creating a made-in-Alberta 10-year action plan to end gender-based violence within the province.

"This action plan will help foster a culture of consent, engage men and boys, support survivors, address root causes of gender-based violence and support critical services within Alberta. Through Budget 2024, we are investing over $19 million that will support the creation and implementation of this action plan. Additionally, we are investing over $100 million annually in critical programs and services that support survivors and help prevent and respond to gender-based violence.

"It will take a collective effort to put an end to gender-based violence, and our government is proud to work alongside survivors, non-profits and community leaders to secure a safer and brighter future for all Albertans."

Tanya Fir, Minister of Arts, Culture and Status of Women
